Story

Deeply troubled by his libido, a young man cannot bring himself to talk to women, afraid that he might be exposed as a pervert. And now, he's even begun fantasizing about Lilia, his childhood friend and a monster girl who happens to be the only girl that he can freely talk to. He hates himself for this, yet he cannot tell anyone about it.

At the same time, strange events have started occurring, and monster girls have a newfound hatred of men. This is a crisis that no one has ever faced before.

Rumor has it that all this is happening because the Legendary Monster Girl is trying to destroy humanity.

At the Elder's command, the young man and Lilia embark on a journey to Monstopia to discover the secret behind these strange occurrences.
