

NIINAMIGOTA

FULL SCRIPT

GAME INCEPTION: JULY. 26TH 2019

INTRO PLOT: It is 1930. The Economic pressures of being inland causes a small family to leave their home for an escape into the sun. Living in brutally cold weather has grown a damper on the family. Mid way to paradise, the ship crashes in the south, nearest to a small island with no way back to the north. While some escape by boat, a few are left to the wrath of the sea. In the months ahead, Island guy and Island Girl further explore the daring of the island, creatures, and riddles that have been left behind by a mysterious ancient civilization. It is told in these riddles that will direct the boat back home and away from disaster. Learn about Island Guy and his history with mental health and how he connects with Island Girl and his family in a heartfelt adventure game.

MIDDLE PLOT CUTSCENE: The game continues to the island of Niinamigota [Imagination Island]. Island Guy starts to rediscover more about himself in flashbacks between his family whilst under the request of the captain to fix the S.S. Stockhausen that crashed. We start off collecting the mast, pine board and golden rudder before a mystery about the island called the snowman. Here we rediscover Wally, an imagination that island guy originally had when the ship was sinking ... the snowman turn out to be real and is run by Pelleck and Quallack, the two island bosses that torture Island guys quest to get closer to Wally.

After retrieving the light-stone and then adding it into the gargoyle's foundry, Island boy has a nightmare: He's much older and living with Island Girl Happily. Their home is destroyed by Pelleck and Quallack. They morph into imaginary demons around the island that slowly stalk him (touching one means death). We have island boy mocked by all of the island monsters as signs on the ground like "I AM A MONSTER" and "LOSER." He goes into the bottom of the ship and a tile call for the sea sucks him up in an ocean blue. We then return from the nightmare and back to getting the light from the Mystery man.

MIDDLE TO FINAL PLOT CUTSCENE:

The light takes us down the rabbit hole to the mines where we have a third boss fight. This time Wally is there to explain himself as failure and sadness to all three children. We battle Quallack and Pelleck and out-fox them in a grass battle. We then get the rustic metal to hand to the Cap'N. Turns out the Captain has been sending the three on a fool's errand to run around and make themselves useful. All for the better good of course. He too is now convinced that they will be stuck indefinitely and doesn't know where the final rudder fuel and carbonator is that will take them home. Island guy learns that the rudder fuel is carried by the 25 souls lost on the S.S. Stockhausen and the 25 Souls that can redeem the fuel in jars. Island guy and girl now understands the power of help and collects the fuel samples in the gravesite east by completing all the side missions captain Narbule had warned them about from the start. Island guy confronts his demons one final time alone with Island Girl and Samuel in the pits of the Graveyard against Fear and Desire [Quallack and Pelleck.] Thus destroying his nightmares for good. Gorax leaves for the ship, leading them into Gorax's Tomb that carries the Atom's path, which is to find the statues of Mary [Just like May, his mother.] That then lead to a tower in the Island west. Climb the three floors of the tower to receive the Carbonator Generator!

AFTER TO FINAL CUTSCENE:

After we've found all of the parts for the boat, Island guy and girl call on Narbule to set sail. The game supposedly ends and everyone is happy! The boat departs once more and the S.S. Stockhausen finds themselves in another thunderstorm [Parallel opening] as Wally descends from the sky. Narbule turns the boat west instead of north and the ship lands on a different island than Alfar. It is raining and the islanders and Narbule are huddled down below. They ask If I can investigate the evil. Island Guy + Girl + Rivers exit boat and see that Wally has followed them and taken their course away from the Atoms to death. We battle both Wally in a final boss battle. The sun returns and the islanders return home.

ENDING SCENES [SINGLE ENDING TO FINISH GAME]

After all the fighting to get the destroyed ship moving, it's enough as the captain pulls out of the sandy reef. The S.S. Stockhausen guided by the suns mysterious rays points them back to home after a three day journey. The Stockhausen once more crashes as the entire crew dies, save Island guy and Island Girl. A wooden raft takes them both back ashore where they both split ways to their homes before Island Guy takes one more look at the pier where it all started. The credits show Island Girl and Island Guy with their families catching up (Very sad) while the credits roll.

After fade to black there is an extra scene. Every characters bodies including Island Guy and Island Girl lay at the bottom of the ocean. Text talks about the questions of a last vacation. "If I could embrace family once more, what would I have done. If I could say one last thing to a loved one, what would I say?" We then show the three islanders one last time [Sort of like inception ending.] And Island guy remarks "I'm home ..."

It is 1930. The Economic pressures of being inland causes a small family to leave their home for an escape into the sun. Living in brutally cold weather has grown a damper on the family. All I want to do is Escape. I wish ... I wish my mother was happy.

My Father ... he can't do this labour anymore. OI! (NAME) GIT OVER HERE!!!

Cutscene - Autorun - Outside Home

Dave: "What did I tell you about helping out with the family?! Your sister is in the back sewing oats! Go Help Her!"

May: "Dave! That's Enough! You don't speak to your son or your daughter that way. We've saved enough for our summer trip. We'll be low on food, but our hard work has paid off. Just a little longer honey.

Dave: "Sorry ... My son. We'll ... see you inside for supper..."

Island Guy: "Man ... My dad. He's been through a lot. Have I been lazy? Is he right about my sister?? ... Hey! I smell marshmallows!"

Island Guy: "Isn't it boring just tending crops all day sis? Just doing the same thing over and over ... ???"

Tori: "(MUNCH MUNCH) YOORP! but at least I (MUNCH) get to stuff ma face with SHUGR! MMM!!

Island Guy: " Unbelievable. You're quite the little sister you know that?!"

Tori: (Giggle) "ha ha ! That I am! Only two marshmallows left and then bring in logs for daddy! Im'a eat them!"

Island Guy: (smile) "Oh no you're not!"

----- Later that Evening -----

Cutscene - Autorun - Inside Home

Dave: "Have the oats and logs been put away?"

Island Guy: "Yeah ... Sorry I'm late for dinner. Tori and I got caught up in a game of tag."

Tori: "And I clearly won! (hehe)"

May: "It's okay. I've just set the table for dinner. You were right on time and did your chores. Let's eat."

Dave: "Now ... shall we say grace?"

Dave: "Let us pray for a new day and a short winter in this dreadful north. Let us pray that we May soon leave to a warmer region with good land and better days ahead.

All: "Amen."

Island Guy: " (GRRAAHHH) NO! NO! NO! NO!"

May: "Sweetie. Hold on, are you upset again? What's the matter? Remember ... calm, resist. Explain to us how you feel without ----"

Island Guy: "YELLING! I AM SO SICK AND TIRED OF FATHER THINKING THAT SOME RANDOM FORCE OF NATURE IS GOING TO HELP US NOT STARVE. A LIGHT IN THE SKY THAT IS GOING TO GIVE US MONEY. EVERY YEAR HAS PASSEDBUT THERE IS NOTHING BEING DONE. NO SEARCH FOR OUR PROBLEMS. IT'S ON US ISN'T IT?! SO WHY DON'T WE ----"

Tori: "STOP YELLING! YOUR BEING AN IDIOT AT THE TABLE. I DON'T WANT TO EAT WITH YOUR STUPID ATTITUDE ---"

May: "Kids ... Please.

David: "ENOUGH! This is supposed to be a nice family dinner, but you always have something to complain about don't you? It is not easy for me and your mother to go out there every day and pay for the food and water and land we harvest to the table. Now finish your dinners full, big day tomorrow gathering hay and the chickens.

----- Quick black screen flash -----

May: "Your father and I are tired. Bedtime everyone. We'll have another chat tomorrow about your outbursts okay?! Take a deep breath."

Island Guy: "Sorry mom."

Tori: "Don't you dare wake me or I'll take your money. You make too much noise!"

May: "Tori!"

----- May, Dave, Tori Go to rooms ----- Disappear ----- I spot my old lucky coin on the bookend. ----- Goes to Bookcase -----

Island Guy: (Regret) Why can't life be more like an escape? To an Island?

Island Guy: I uphold my real life - check for every last possible answer to my family's problems.

But why make it my own burden? When every passing day the thought of me being happy with my family for something... something that ultimately rips us apart.

That becomes sole purpose to living." That's what makes me angry. The optimist has become the pessimist.

Island Guy: "I tell you what Gzhapel. Heads We live on an island. We are happy as a family. Tails. Another day of misery and fighting over what we got."

I flip a coin. (Smile)

FADE TO BLACK

Cutscene - Parallel Process - In Hell

The Devil Wally: Greetings Boy! Welcome To Hell.

I bet you figured It was hot in hell. Is that what your parents taught you Island Guy.

----- Choices -----

Yes: Ah yes. The Flames burn blue for you my child. I can see it in your eyes. Blue eyes. [Sigh]

You are something more in a sea of strangers. you ... have broken through your barrier of morality. you have broken through ... life.

Hell is different for each and every one of us. Hell is the beauty of the clouds and the warm laughter of a loved one. Hell is the torment of anger and frustration as we walk through time opalescent, never knowing. But either way: heaven and hell are the same. As one. All I hear from those I ferry are about the evil I've caused on my land. Atom's land. The lives I've destroyed. [A tear rolls down the devil's face.]

Truth is: Ferrying the souls of Gzhapel has made me quite tired. And Depressed. So many Stories, so many conversations. And yet I have to explain the ultimate truth. There is no hell or heaven. Just ... me. me. A thousand thousand years. Such an eternity ago. I looked just like you once: but the decay of time, the rustic nature of life, has left me with no face. No skin. No ... soul.

However: You are special. You're destiny is not over just yet. You are something more in a sea of strangers. you ... have broken through your barrier of morality. You have broken through ... life. The Sea is My creation. As is the sun. What say you and I make a deal?

No: Insolent, wretched creatures. Humans lie. Humans keep their woes locked in a closet. Oh how I jest! Did you not see that funny looking snowman at my doorway? and yet. All I hear from those I ferry are about the evil I've caused my land. Atoms land. The lives I've destroyed. [A tear rolls down the devil's face.]

Truth is: Ferrying the souls of Gzhapel has made me quite tired. And Depressed. So many stories, so many conversations. And yet I have to explain the ultimate truth. There is no hell or heaven. Just ... me. me. A thousand thousand years. Such an eternity ago. I looked just like you once: but the decay of time, the rustic nature of life, has left me with no face. No skin. No ... soul.

However: You are special. You're destiny is not over just yet. You are something more in a sea of strangers. you ... have broken through your barrier of morality. You have broken through ... life. The Sea is My creation. As is the sun. What say you and I make a deal?

I want to Go Home:

I know you do my child. And I'm sorry, but your home and family is far away now. The S.S. Stockhausen had crashed in the middle of the Orion sea. Your parents, among a few others, were one of the lucky few that made it to the life boats. [The devil looks slightly emphatic.] But onto a greater question. Why we are all here? To answer ourselves. Why: the most powerful word in the human language. Invented by the atoms themselves before they taught me its meaning and I so my children that inherit my creation. Alfar . And my land of all lands and creation will always be: why? From the moment you are born until your death. Hell is not torture. Heaven is not praise. When the light leaves all my children, they look me in the eye and I ask why. Even those that fear hell, the truth soars above an icy heart.

And you. Island guy. So innocent. Not yet seen what you're father or mother have. Pure. Never to have to endure pain, sorrow. Isn't that a beautiful poetic gesture? Graced to you by the Atoms of Old: my child. Set to drift away in a fairy tale of imagination. Your friends, family, those you don't know. Those you do. They all receive my forgiveness. [A warm smile breaks out on my face.] That's it child! That's the spirit! Now My brittle bones won't cause you death, but take you back to where you want to be most. So take my hand my child. [I put my hand in the devil's.]

A Bright path awaits you boy, the atoms don't wish you join them yet. Because you: you have more of your heart to offer. Not one of ice, but of passion. Of Fire. And [The devil gives a blank wink] When you do see them, tell them ... Little old Wally was there . [The lava and ice begin to shake around me. Bright lights of white fly from my fingertips. Then My toes.]

And then Suddenly Wally was gone..... "HEY! WAKE UP OFF THAT PLANK!"

The Devil Is Evil:

Ahahaha! And so I am. Or Maybe that's just what your stories portray. One is good. One is bad. Yes is yes. No is no. Up is up..... and down is down. No room for critical thinking my dear child. what do you see in hell? There is fire. Flame! The heat is deemed Evil.... .. and yet. You feel blue, like the waters that swept you ashore and lost you amidst the sadness of reality. And is that not why we are here? Why we are all here? To answer ourselves. Why: the most powerful word in the human language. Invented by the atoms themselves before they taught me its meaning and I so my children that inherit my creation. Niinamigota. And such an island will always be: why. From the moment you are born until your death. Hell is not torture. Heaven is not praise. When the light leaves all my children, they look me in the eye and I ask why. Even those that fear hell, the truth soars above an icy heart.

And you. Island guy. So innocent. Not yet seen what you're father or mother have become. Pure. Never to have to endure pain, sorrow. Isn't that a beautiful poetic gesture? Graced to you by the Atoms of Old: my child. Set to drift away in a fairy tale of imagination. Your friends, family, those you don't know. Those you do. They all receive my forgiveness. Then My toes.] And then Suddenly Wally was gone..... "HEY! WAKE UP OFF THAT PLANK!"

Say you Make a Deal With Me?:

A Gambler at heart huh? Baha! I wouldn't have guessed. Perhaps you take up after your father more than your mother. A strong boy you'll become! Ho! But I'm sorry my child, there is no deals with the devil. There is only your transcendence. Into something greater than you are now. A Pirate? A lover? A painter? A Poet? Wow! Boy, do Atoms have something special planned for you. You will one day find yourself once again in a place you'd never expected to arrive at. It is written in the edges of your fingertips to the sand that will caress between your toes.

... ..

And you. Island guy. So innocent. Not yet seen what you're father or mother have. Pure. Never to have to endure pain, sorrow. Isn't that a beautiful poetic gesture? Eight Hours later on a plank unconscious.

Cap'N: "Can you swim boy?"

Island Guy: "Ummm ... No I can't."

Spartina: "Hey Hold on! Some of the others have gone to scavenge the island for supplies. The boat crashed south of here. We're taking what we can from the sea and wreckage to build homes here ... Cap'n, take charge while we find some rope to bring the boy in."

--- Island Girl house ---

Island Girl: Hello Island Guy! I'm so glad you got my Note! Or Maybe you were just too dizzy to See It!

Island Girl : no no no, don't worry Island Guy]!!! Have no Fret! I saw your family and mine board the life boats. They're safe. Trust Me.
Otherwise I'd be miserable. But: They are probably back in Alfar by now. I do miss them deeply. I just hope we can all work together to fix the ship ...

.... SAY! The captain is down by the docks, He says he needs a couple of things on this weird island ... stuff that probably fell overboard.
So whadda ya say? Wanna team up with me to find these things?

Island Guy: "I Like you."

Island Girl: "Well, aren't you sweet? I ... I guess I like you too! Sometimes I don't find the right words to describe how I feel. Like is the right one? Not love? hmmm.... sorry, off topic. [Gives a tiny wink] Let's get em stuff back eh?!

----- Alfar Flashback 1 -----

[As Island Girl began to run eagerly to the boat, I took a few moments to slow life down as it were ... It was something I'd do to cool off... in the rain ... on a sad day ... When Mom got news from the doctor ... Another Flashback. Another Memory.]

[Seven year ago ... Before Tori Was Born ...]

May: Island Guy? What are you doing out in the rain? You must be freezing?!

Island Guy: MOM!!! DONT SNEAK UP ON ME LIKE THAT!!!

May: Honey, You're Screaming!! Let's get you inside ... I just came back from the doctors ...
Remember we went there last week to inquire about your condition??

Island Guy: ... ugh. yea. So What?

May: The doctor came back with the results ... He tells me you have ... [Sobs] Well, I'm afraid life is going to be very hard for us. Someday, you'll be all alone. Without anyone. And everyone will ignore you. Leave you alone. They won't understand you the way I do. I'm so sorry my son. It's not your fault. Remember that. Island Guy? Are you listening?

[I turned around to see my mom in tears. The doctors must've explained something to her I was not privy to. For a second, the droplets of water that entered my skin gave me clarity over my head. You can almost imagine being angry everyday beyond your control. Or being extremely happy to the point of awkwardness ... Or just not caring what anyone thinks or feels ... But I feel I just can't explain myself and that makes me mad and sad.]

Hey Island Guy! I think I found Sumthin! It's a Cave! Down There! Look!

--- We Leave the Boat to Seek Spartress ---

Spartress: Hey, I remember you Kid! Your mother and I had a brief conversation aboard the ship, your father is quite the gentleman!

Island Guy is your name correct?!

Island Guy: [I Nod with disdain ...]

Spartress: You fainted on that life raft, and my sister and I had to help you .. I'm guessing you already spoke to the captain about the situation with the pine board huh?!

Island Girl: We Sur did, and have come to help get it so we can fix the boat!

Spartress: okay! But I must Warn You ... Being Underground ANYWHERE around this island is quite dangerous ...

We've spotted monsters on the island that are willing to chase you without a second thought ...

Island Guy: NO Island Girl!! ... we need to get home ... I need to see my mom again ...

Island Girl: I'm sorry Island Guy. I didn't mean to upset you ... I have to ask ... Do you ... have ... ? My mom she talked -----

Island Guy: [I ignore Island Girl and look out to the large hole off to the west ...] [Spartress nodded. It sure was the place to be ...]

Spartress: The Pit is just West of here ... I see you already spotted it ...I must warn you though ... there is no turning back ... Because of the flooding, the ladder is broken and we'll have to jump down. At the end of the underground pit is a second way up that will take us to the southern part of the island. LETS GO!

----- We Head Down into the Pit -----

Spartress: The Pineboard is just south of here across the cart tracks ... Hopefully the light from above will hold out until nightfall What's that noise?!

Island Girl: Right - O! Let's Go Island Guy, this place is a little creepy ...The faster we gather these parts, the faster we can go back home ...

... It's kind of ironic though. We were all supposed to take a vacation. But now, the vacation isn't quite turning out how we'd expected it ...

Samuel: R-r-r-right! Island Guy, w-we need to get back to mother and father! My place is here though.

Island Guy: [I pause and listen to Samuel, along with Island Girl ...] [He was absolutely right.]

Spartress: huh?

Island Girl: Don't worry about him, Spartress ... He's just dizzy from his coma. Now, Island Guy, we've got a mission to do. Focus! Daytime is not on our side.

Samuel: L-l-listen to h-her Island Guy. You'll be okay. Promise.

Island Guy: okay Island Girl. Let's go!

----- We Make our Way down the Pit and Find a Ghost Like Tori -----

Tina [Tori ghost]: Hello! I'm Little Tina and I have Crystal Powers!!

Island Girl: Island Guy? Island Guy?!!! Where are we going? We're stuck on a little island ... I believe the pineboard is south of here, right Spartress?!

Spartress: Yes, indeed ... I don't recognize this area. We set up some torches to light our way to the source.

Island Guy: !!!! GAAAAHHHH!!!! You look just like my sister!!!

Tina [Tori ghost]: Oh! Sorry, didn't mean to spook ya! I'm sure your sister is just fine ... Up ahead of here, A Giant Crystal has morphed into a giant wall to block your path ... you're going to have to acquire the smaller crystal keys, which will in turn melt the barrier.

Island Guy: Crystals. Unlock Barrier.

Tina [Tori ghost]: Yep! You got it bro! I'll see you there!

Spartress: What's this about Crystals? Who's Tori? Island Girl?

Island Girl: Not a worry Sparty! It's just his baby sister. He's adjusting to the island very slowly Island Guy ... are you paying attention?
Sparty can't remember the layout of the pit and its getting darker by the minute ... We need to go now and get your little 'crystals' okay?

Island Guy: [It was slowly becoming apparent to me that Island Girl was turning into the bully Rivers from my school.] [What had I done to her? What did I ever do to Rivers?]

Samuel: y-y-y-your being mean to Island Guy Island Girl. p-p-p-please stop.

Island Guy: [I look down and close my eyes for a minute. I didn't want to yell at Island Girl. She seemed like a special someone and I knew someday that I could love her. So I smiled at Island Girl instead.

Island Girl: [Sigh] ... c'mon kid. I'm sorry ... both of us are. Why don't you let your sister lead the way okay?

Island Guy: [I looked at Island Girl confused. I could see she was still angry and May lose her temper because of my abnormal behavior.]
[It was just something that I was afraid to confront with her.] [so I let it go.] Lets go Samuel. Spartress.

Spartress: Not a worry at all Island Guy! Show us the way

----- We satisfy Island Guy's need to collect imaginary objects -----

Island Guy: I found the 2nd of the crystals!

Island Girl: Drat! Another dead end Island Guy ... It has to be back that other way with the snow path ...
It feels like the condensation is causing water to fall on us ...

Spartress: Indeed Island Girl. Such a thing worries me, this cavern has become unstable and May collapse at any minute I'm sorry Island Guy, I hope you get better without your family but your aimless wandering has cost the sun to set.

We have less time than I thought. I'm going to become a burden to you both if I stick around, since there is only one route, let me go ahead and collect some pine board. I'll be right ahead of you to clear the path ...

Island Girl: WAIT! SPARTRESS! WHATTAYA THINK YA DOIN!!! SISSY PANTS!!! C'mon Island Guy! Lets catch up to her. We'll need to get the rest of the pine board that she can't carry!

---- Tina Gets the Crystals and Flies away----

Tina: WHEEEEE!!!

Island Girl: Looks like this is the only way left ... I smell a damp rotting piece of wood, I bet we're close Island Guy! Island Guy?

Island Guy: [Tina had left my mind for good and now I was all alone with a girl whom I hardly knew.] [But with my own problems, time didn't matter on Niinamigota] [This is where I wanted to be.] [I needed time away from my family.] [And Yet.] [I wanted them close.]

----- We Leave and Head to the Island Patches Where Island Guy Imagines Dragons -----

Island Girl: MONSTERS!!!! Island Guy, CROSS THE BRIDGE WITH ME NOW!!!! !!! The Monsters Have Stopped!

Island Guy: [I looked down at my feet below when I see a mysterious glyph with an evanescent glow.] A Mystical force must be keeping them away Island Girl.

Island Girl: well then, we'll need to take our next steps across this swamp lagoon carefully.

[The scent and smell of wood became heightened for me until the point I couldn't take it.]

Island Guy: Island Girl it smells bad ... can you smell that?

Island Girl: Let's not wait around for these swamp creatures to eat us ...

----- The Monsters Stop -----

Island Guy: [I look up to see that the monsters had stopped. Their eerie faces peer back at me as they lie still.]

[What was going on?] [What was happening to me?]

Samuel: n-n-n-n-n-n- Island Guy? Y-y-y-you can do it!

Island Guy: [I looked back at Island Girl as she pointed West of the cave.] [There it was: the indestructible pine board] [The sunlight pouring through the top of the cave and the monsters seemed to scare me less.] [I was not afraid. I was ready to stand up for myself.] ... But Not today. SAMUEL! SAMUEL! HELP! HELP!

Island Girl: !!!!!!!!! YOU SCARED ME Island Guy!! WHY ARE YOU SCREAMING?!!! I CAN'T TAKE THIS ANYMORE! TELL ME?! WHY ARE YOU ACTING THIS WAY?!

Island Guy: [I shot back a very angry look at Island Girl.] BECAUSE I DON'T HAVE TO EXPLAIN MYSELF TO YOU!

----- Flashback 3 -----

Jasper: Good Morning Class! So today good O! Jasper is going to teach everybody mathematics -----

Rivers: Math Sucks!!!

Class: BAHAAAAAAAAHAHA!!!!

Jasper: Now now Rivers What did we say about speaking out in class??

Rivers: Why don't you tell that to loser Island Guy over there ... He won't stop talking to himself.

Tori: Hey Rivers! Why don't you pick on someone your own size ... Don't speak to my brother like that!!

Rivers: Why don't you shut up Tori?! I'm trying to learn here!!

Class: [BAHAHAHAHAHAHA!!!!] [BAHAHAHAHAHAHA!!!!] [BAHAHAHAHAHAHA!!!!]

Jasper: CHILDREN! CHILDREN! FOCUS! We are an inclusive family, everyone is invited to learn ...

Island Guy: [I move to the window to get fresh air from the stress ...] [I Breathe ...]

Island Girl: [Blink, Blink] [I feel bad for him ... He's so cute!] [I wonder why Rivers is such a jerk?] Maybe I can be his friend ...

----- Returning from 7 years later ... -----

Island Girl: I REMEMBER! I REMEMBER! you are Island Guy from my class, the one that thinks differently!! Cutie!!!

That's how I remember you ... and Rivers!

Island Guy: [I froze in terror from the name and looked at Island Girl with a blank expression.] yeah him. I ---- yeah. I ... think different.

But I'm just like you. I don't like talking about that. Don't do that.

Interlude Mission 1 – We Go West and Help: The First of Two Islanders Kasseck's Sewer

Kasseck: The Fog gives the island a nice atmosphere doesn't it? It's the eerie stature of the trees. It's the calm waters. It's the victory in the air!

In any case, I'm Kasseck, and I assume you've met everyone on the island little man?

Island Girl: He hasn't yet, but I'm introducing him around Kass ... The Cap'n asked us to help you all out in the meantime while he prepared supplies...

Kasseck: Well that's mighty fine of him! Have you gone East yet?!

Samuel: w-w-w-w-eee have!

Kasseck: oh very good! Oh --- sorry I didn't catch your name kid.

Island Girl: He is Island Guy. And this is his friend Samuel. He stutters and has a lisp. That's right Island Guy?!

Samuel: y-y-you're right Island Guy ...

Kasseck: I see ... well anyways, I left a horn in the Eastern parts and am hoping to have it fixed ... I was in the middle of a storm when I had dropped it to safety.

I'd like you both to recover it, along with a special Item I'd left down the well when scavenging for freshwater ... Up for the task?!

Island Girl: After what we've been through so far on this island, we are up for anything!!

----- We Head to Collect the Pipe Horn -----

Island Girl: Yessir! Mr. Samuel ... We passed it along the way to the beach ... We'll have to head down the well to gather his missing treasure to fix it.

Island Girl: This water well is creepy. There isn't a whole lot of light ... What do you think Samuel?

Samuel: w-w-w-w-water ... I d-d-don't like. Wh-wh-watch out for traps.

Island Girl: The pit was dangerous but has now been closed off ... right Island Guy?

Island Guy: [I nod at Island Girl with a blank expression on my face.] [My family was on my mind and nothing else ...] [For once the sister i didn't get along with, I missed her.] [For once the angry father that I chose to rebel against I missed him.] I want to go home.

Found Kassecks Book of Knowledge! Its bright glow feels comforting ... Sickness Cured!!

Island Girl: okay ... let's Go mr. Island Guy!! Island Guy.... ??? Island Guy.... ???

Island Guy: [I stare back at the book, as it brings back more memories of class of Rivers] I ... I'm just like what my mother said. I am truly alone Island Girl I can't explain myself all the time and it frustrates me when people don't understand. So I don't speak.

Island Girl: Oh. well ... what are you thinking about now?!

Island Girl: I'm Island Girl! The Girl Behind you !!! ... In Class ??? !!!! Hello?! What are ya readin kid?!

Island Guy: [She sits behind me in the back of the class. I do my best not to turn around and talk to her for fear of being caught ...] [But it's only been 1 month of school so far, and I've only talked to her twice.] [She asked for a spare pencil.] You! You sit behind me!

Island Girl: [Giggle Giggle!] An observant kid, aren't you Cutie! Are you studying for the test?!

Let me help you ... $1 + 1 = 2$ $2 + 3 = 5$ $4 + 3 = 7$... Looks good So Far!

Island Guy: I don't know this one ... what is this symbol [I point to the x on the page: 5×5]

Island Girl: Oh wow! That's a toughie! I ... I don't know either!

Island Guy: [I notice Island Girl fidgeting with her hands ... she was trying to count up the numbers just like I did ...]

[But neither of us knew ...] [I begin to laugh]

Island Girl: What's so funny?!

Island Guy: Island Girl looked upset at my outburst at first, but then even she found it funny

Island Girl: [ahahahhahahahhaa!!!]

Island Guy: [ahahahhahahahhaa!!!] [It was a good memory] [I wish I'd remembered] ... I do now ... This was Island Girl. It was three years ago, and you were in my class ... How could I forget? I ... Island Girl: I'm going to kiss you now.

We kissed in the dark amidst the jellies that I was scared of. But now was not the time for fear. I had a girl love on my side! Time to be Brave!

----- We Return to Kasseck to Deliver the Horn -----

Kasseck: Oh how wonderful! wonderful! With both the book and the horn, Spartress will be able to fix it. Give this token to the Cap'n. He'll be needing it before the storm comes to the beaches ... Island Guy: Island Guy.

Spartrina: Well, I'm Spartrina! I believe you already met my sister Spartress? A bit of a daydreamer too ...

Spartress: I heard that Spartrina!

Island Girl: Aye! And She left us in the pit like a sissy pants too!

Spartress: I heard that too Island Girl!

Island Girl: ... But she is pretty sprightly!! ... Okay you're Cool then.

Spartrina: You kiddos are too cute. That's my other Sister Spartrisa behind the counter that helps collect things amongst the island.

Spartrisa: Allo!

Spartrina: I'm guessing you both have already helped out Nigel and Nally then? There's plenty of work to go around here if you can handle it ...

Island Girl: The Cap'n asked us to look around the island for islanders that needed some help. We found Kassecks book ... So we can certainly handle your work too!

Spartrina: In that Case! Some of the islanders are sadly short on food and freshwater. Some of the food was lost at sea and now after 4 months, the islanders are starving ... Go to the west beach and collect the packaged parcels from our safe spots. Then ... Deliver them to all the island houses! There should be 4 parcels.

Easy Peasy!

Island Guy: We'll try our best! I wouldn't want anyone to be hurt, I know how it feels ... To Starve. To Be Hungry. To be Hurt.

Spartrina: Thanks a million and good luck finding them, I completely forget where they are buried.

----- We Pick up Parcels Deliver them and Return them Back to the Cap'N -----

Cap'N: AHH YES! A GIFT FROM OUR FRIENDS KASSECK AND SPARTRINA! WONDERFUL! Might I have It?!

Island Girl: It feels a little lopsided ... So what should we get?

Island Guy: [I felt a little angry at the captain, and that I was just being taken advantage of ... I made it clear in my words with a glare]

Cap'N: Ar ar, little sea matey. ye seem displeased?

Island Guy: [The captain had a genuine look of concern on his face... Maybe my sarcastic tone was a little too harsh] Sorry. No I'm just ... I miss my family ...

[Breathe] [And I breathe...] [Before I run away off the dock ... Run away from Island Girl...] I run away from everything.

----- We Do One More Final Interlude of Island Girl Flashback before Intermission We Reveal she is just like Island Guy -----

----- Montage --- Island Guy watches in the North others Build Houses and scavenge more parts with items behind them. -----

(Island Guy Default): "(Sigh) ... There's got to be a way to get out of here... Some vacation huh? This was supposed to be the one time we could get away from it all.

The work. School. The Pressure. GAAH!!!! [I'm not a scientist, but that boat can be fixed. BUT WHY ME???!?!]

I'm tired of waking up everyday thinking that tomorrow is going to be any different. I have to take action for myself. I've got to leave...

Island Girl: Hi Island Guy. Isn't it? Isn't it just beautiful outside ? I guess ... I already know what you're thinking ...

Island Guy: What am I thinking?

Island Girl: About your mother. Your father. I miss my own ... even little Timmy. He was just born four years ago.

Island Guy: Yeah. I can remember Tori as a baby. Squalling as usual.

Island Girl: (giggles). That's funny Island Guy . Since I've known you over the past 2 months, you seem different. Special.

Island Guy: (depressed) well, I never thought so ... Being alone with just your family is hard. I --- I didn't want that for any of us. I ... I want to leave. It May be warm weather, but I am scared for my family. Just stuck out there. We got to find where they went ... So I'm ready to get back to help the Cap'N. I'm sorry for leaving ...
But First ... I must rest Island Girl... rest. Rest. rest. rest. rest. I wanted to get back to Alfar more than ever.

----- We Move to Island Guy Sleeping in the North Island Bedroom much like his main house [Taya's Home] -----

Taya: Morning Morning Sleepyhead!

Island Guy: Morning ugh ... It's Taya right? I keep forgetting ... thanks for letting us sleep here.

You know, you remind me of Joanne, the lady that passed away on the Cap'N's Ship.

Taya: You're very very welcome Island Guy. Both you and Island Girl can come by the north ports anytime you wish ...

Island Guy: I think i need to apologize to the Cap'N ... I shouldn't have stormed off like that ...

Island Girl: Wait, hold it kid! He did say that we needed to meet a Rosto down here. So Taya, by any chance you know where Rosto is?

Taya: Of course! Rosto's quite strange and obsessed with fire and mystical energies. Last I saw him was this morning. He said he was collecting parts to build a device to rid of trees in the area. Head North East of here past the beach and apples ... you'll find him out summoning demons or something like that in his mind Its dangerous out there ... the gate is locked. The password is as easy as "123"!

Island Guy: [I could feel with time alone my thoughts and speech improving.] [Maybe being on an island alone was beneficial after all.]

Samuel: R-r-r-right ... s-s-s-sure you did!

Rosto: You bein' smart with me kid?!

Island Girl: No no no ... not at all Rosto. We don't mean to be rude. It's been quite a journey so far amidst the island. We've been collecting parts for the Cap'N on the S.S. Stockhausen so we can all leave the island. He said you had the golden rudders...

Rosto: Indeed I do kid! I just have one problem: I've been keeping them stored below in an ice locker I built so they remain unbreakable. The ground has cooled over and has made it impossible to get to the back of the room. There are two chests full of golden rudders. collect them and bring them back to the Cap'N... they should be ready by now for sailing ... After you got them ... talk to me. It's been 2 years ... and his face is starting to fade.] [My parents Martha and Terry are deciding to teach me on their own and how to survive. Live.]

Terry: Do you want any fish Island Girl?

Island Girl: No thanks Dad!

Its quiet ... so quiet in here ... I feel good. Full. Complete. I'm alone. It's the first time I've felt this way since being in a coma. I don't see Wally ... perhaps I will meet with him in the near future. [I remember the lucky coin still in my pocket. I take it out to have a look at it. [It glows brightly just the way it had on my father's bookshelf.] Heads ... We live on an island. We are a happy family. Tails ... Another day of misery and fighting over what we got. I Flip my coin. ... and I begin to cry. It's time to go ... kid.

Rosto: To hell with this, we need to get the other islanders.

Clock King: Seconded! We need the knights!

Spartrina: As if they would help!

Gambler Mike: I know a few of them!

Witch Bob: Me too! Let's Go!

Darkstone King: Will the two of them save the adults? Atom Girl: Only if they save the children. [Pause] And confront their own feelings of the past.

[Fade To White. Inside the Final lair and a pan Right to the End of the Lair.]

Quallack: These jars are almost full and then we can summon the Darkstone King himself!

Pelleck: And are we then going to return to human beings?

Quallack: Only once we pass through ATOMLAND. And then!!! BAHA!!! WE SHALL TAKE OVER ISLAND GUY HIMSELF!!!

Pelleck: AND ISLAND GIRL!!! WE SHALL BECOME THEM!!!

Quallack: Like a perfect mirrored Reflection!

Pelleck: And our Darkness shall consume them!!! [Both: BAHAAHAHA!!!]

----- We make it back to the Ship to return the Golden Rudders -----

Cap'N: My my! The Hero Returns! And no less with the Rudders! I see then you met Rosto ... He froze them quite well for me! My congratulations to him! I'm sorry the way I treated you Island Guy. I didn't mean to be rude, and you both have saved more than just the boat. You have saved us all... We are all deeply in your gratitude. And when the S.S. Stockhausen is in tip - top shape, I'll sail ya to any part of Gzhapel you wish!!!

Samuel: Th-Th-Th-Thanks Cap Narbule. We are all okay now ...

Cap'N: I know you are laddie! I see that bright sparkle in your eye once more. Lets add the rudders to the boat! Well ... that takes care of that! The Boat's nearly there lads but the side of the ship is starting to dip.

Island Girl: Our spirits be bright! We've helped some of the islanders about with their daily chores, so we're ready!

Cap'N: Well see that's the problem. To set her straight, we're going to need a sediment of rustic metal. ... But all of it has been weaved into the fibers of the pine board, whilst I was her from complete destruction. I can't give you any directions on this one ... But do seek Mike the Gambler... He's north of here! That's all I can say ... Best of Luck!

Island Guy: [I see a look of solemn on Narbule's face, there was something he wasn't telling us.]

Island Girl: Captain Narbule ... What has happened since we left? It's been a week, did something happen on the island ...

Cap'N: Indeed Island Girl. The Islanders over the months, have started to begin acting Well Stranger.

Island Girl: Is this really why you have us seek out this Mike the Gambler?

Cap'N: Indeed... Rumors about are some of the islanders have formed a cult called:"The Snowman Group".

Island Guy: [Island Girl froze in fear at the mention of the word Snowman. I also remember she didn't want to go below into the ice box ...] [Was there something in Alfar that happened to her involving a Snowman? Island Girl was clearly petrified.] [So I whisper to Island Girl....] I'm here ... your friend

Island Guy. I won't let the monsters hurt you... [Whatever Island Girl was thinking or feeling... She helped me past my monsters ...] [So I wanted to help her past hers...]

Island Girl: [Whispers] Th-th-thanks kid.

Cap'N: Anyhow! You two are the most lovely, good natured children on the island and I don't wish for the adults to fall apart. An persons spirit wanes over time ... You'll understand this once you get older ... And they are counting on you! Find out about this Snowman cult from Mike and if they exist ... See if he knows anyone that's heard of any rumors His home is just north of yours Island Guy. Look past the Large Trees ...

TIME: 2hr [7 Hours]

----- We take the Cap'N advice and seek out Gambler Mike for Questions -----

Island Guy: Are You ... the Gambler Mike? There's a sign outside your home that says you are Gambler Mike: A-huh?! Yeah kid ... Indeed I am! [Singing!] The coolest of the cool, I ain't no gamblin fool!

Island Guy: Oh ... um okay... Nice singing I guess ... Captain Narbule said something about a snowman cult sounds silly ...

Gambler Mike: ... Oh. Suddenly I don't feel like singin' anymore. [Sigh] Yes, a Snowman Cult that started off as a joke in the snowy mountains has now become a folk tale with a leader to guide them no less ... The mountains are just south east of here ... before the moustache brothers house ... But it's all just a figurative idea.

Island Guy: What ... what was the leaders name?

Gambler Mike: Wally. A Cloaked figure, Skeleton and bones. But no one on the island has seen this skeleton, so it's just a myth really. I don't want you kiddos to get any nightmares ... monsters aren't real.

Island Guy: They're Real. [It had been now some time since I was in a Coma ... I was adjusting to my own reality with some discomfort.] [But I was prepared to do whatever it took to get back to my family. I loved them ... and nothing was going to stop me from being with them once more.] [I was focused. I was to stay alive on this island. Some food to eat in my back sack as I go from place to place. And I'm not giving up.]

Island Girl: Erm ... thanks Mike! You are quite a character ... by any chance you want to tell me where I can find this cult, Snowman? Perhaps I find Wally too.

Gambler Mike: The snowy mountains have been closed off by stone pillars because it's too dangerous to venture out there ... But I left riddles on the stones to pass me through ... I forget what order I left the stone riddles in, so write this down while you can. It will be just one more extra adventure of fun for ya, right kid?!

Riddle Codes and Pillars on Island: Riddle 1: 4156 Riddle 2: 8736 Riddle 3: 9999 Riddle 4: 7475

Island Guy: [Mike gave Island Girl a soft nod and a weak smile. Island Girl nodded back. I'm not sure what he meant by that ...]

Island Girl: One more thing Mr. Gamblin Singer!

Gambler Mike: Pfft! No formalities kiddo! Just Mike is fine. Whaddaya wanna know?!

Island Girl: Narbule also mentioned A Rustic Metal. Know anything about that? The Stockhausen is still a wreck!

Gambler Mike: Hmph! Well, ye can try the mines north of the pit, but I'm afraid they are closed off ... There are forces at play I tell ya!

Island Girl: Just like the Pit?! Yoish! What goes on down there?!

Gambler Mike: Its messy finding supplies little girl, ya think houses grow on trees?! That ship was in a far worse condition 4 months ago than it is now.

Most of that was from Spartress and I! ... [Sigh] Life's just a dangerous game and value is the biggest monster of them all.

Island Girl: Welp! Taking care of the monsters is our specialty and getting to the hard to reach places, right cutie?!

Samuel: R-r-r-right. Tt-t-t-to th-th-the mountains we leave ...

----- We Find the Stone Pillars -----

Island Girl: So this is it huh? I guess we found it ... look at Gambler Mikes Markings amidst the stone.

Island Guy: [I took a closer look at the stone. It was harder to see with the sun setting behind it ... Etchings of snowman and skeletons danced around the center markings. A Giant mountain lay in the middle and it looked like arrow traps and other dangerous paths that were set by islanders ... this didn't look to good. At the bottom of the stone appeared to be a lever ...] Push it Island Girl.

Island Girl: Righty - O!

Island Guy: [A cackle in the sky resonated amongst the island ... I could see a glow emerge from the Stone Pillar. It was Speaking to me!!!]

Stone Pillar: WELCOME WELCOME!! TO THE RIDDLE GAME!!

Island Guy: Hello Stone Pillar ... I have come with the riddles to your clue ...

Island Girl: Ummm Island Guy? Who are you talking to? C'mon, I think I can see Tyler's House ...

Stone Pillar: YES YES! I'M SURE YOU HAVE THOSE CLUES!!! BUT I AM A TRICKY PILLAR INDEED!! AND SO IS MY BROTHER BEHIND ME!!! The only question I have for you kids is ... are you ready?!

Island Guy: Absolutely Mr. Pillar!

Stone Pillar: I appreciate the formality!! Now, let's begin! "I add up to 17, but then take away 1 ... what am I? I Enter: 4156

Stone Pillar: HEY HO! SOMEONE CAN COUNT!! Next Question.

"Two Dogs. Three Chickens plus a Worm. A Wee Little Tricycle and a Casting Dice ... what am I?" I Enter: 8736

Stone Pillar: AND YOU! MAY! PASS!! SEE TO MY BROTHER HAY - HO!!

Island Girl: Okay, so can we go through!! ISLAND GUY!! The house is just up that hill ...

Island Guy: Not yet, another pillar ...

Island Girl: Why does it matter? It's just ...

Island Guy: [I ignore Island Girl and speak to the second pillar... It's the pillar's wife.]

Stone Pillar 2: And you are???!?

Island Guy: It's Island Guy ... Gambler Mike Sent me ...

Stone Pillar 2: Ah yes! He is quite the scoundrel! Now are you ready for the final riddles!

Island Guy: I am indeed ready Mrs. Pillar!

Stone Pillar 2: Now this riddle is simple Island Guy. In fact. Just close your eyes and breathe with me. Breathe. Now. Think about your parents. Think about Tori. Think about school. Your friends. Those you love. Relax. Stop being so anxious. Stop being around so many people. Go away with me.... and breathe....

----- The Meditation ends -----

Stone Pillar 2: All done! You May Pass ...

Island Guy: [I stand alone for a few moments, clearing out the constant schedule of helping others that needlessly flashes through my mind. It feels like it's my purpose, my duty, my goal..... But all the while my own soul gets ripped apart..... They wouldn't understand.] It's Tyler's house. I can see the sign from here.

Island Girl: WHAT IS YOUR PROBLEM ISLAND GUY?! HOW COULD YOU POSSIBLY UGH WIERDO!!!

I swear if you weren't so cute ---- [GHRR]

----- We Head to Magician Tyler's. Being an Expert on magic, he tells us that the snowman group uses what is known as a Light Stone, and that I'd need to go north deep into the mountains to find one -----

Magician Tyler: Welome Welcome Welcome!

Island Girl: BOY-O! You got pizzaz Mr. Tyler!

Magician Tyler: Don't forget my Flair! Moi-ha! I am the magician Tyler, my wife Cynthia and I wanted to sail the Orion seas and take my magical acts far and wide! Care to see?! [Show Me! Show Me!]

Magician Tyler: Then let me begin! Now: we've got the dark spooky act ... I can bring a room to a quiet ... Or to the Light ...

We've got some Cool Effects! Watch the Piano!

Island Guy: Wow! Wow! Wow! Wow! More! More! More! [I couldn't contain my feelings and my own excitement ... this was just too much fun!!!]

Magician Tyler: Oh!!! Look over there!! The Bathtub is now full of Ice!! And now ... My Bookshelves are becoming sleepy!! And ... SCENE!

Island Guy: [I clap my hands very loudly!] YA!!!! YA!!!!

Island Girl: That was very nice Mr. Tyler, but we are here to find the Snowman cult, not your magic ... so where are they?

Magician Tyler: Well Well! Aren't you the killer of buzzes!! The crusher of magical youth! A young lady and to the point then... The snowmen cult are reported to be north of here. In the lightstone mountain pass ... See Zhogol. He's a crazy hermit and I think he's been trading this tale falsely ... Zhogol tells me they care for a sediment called the light-stone above all things ... Hence aptly named "LIGHTSTONE MOUNTAIN!" BAHAHA!

Island Girl: A light-stone?!

Magician Tyler: Have you seen the pointed stars amidst the ground? Those were carved by the Snowman group ...

Island Girl: Yes! Yes Indeed! They kept all the monsters away ... right Island Guy?!

Island Guy: ... Yeah ... So...where do we find the light-stone?

Island Girl: There's a cave north of here ... within its deepest depths a light-stone is crystallized by the passing of time. But it May be guarded by this mysticism ...That's why I say look for clues ...The lightstone bridge has broken off and needs to be fixed ... Anyhow ... the best of luck.

----- We escape the snowman monsters and head towards the cabin as suggested by Tyler -----

Island Girl: YOI! This cold be blisterin'!

Island Guy: [It was the first time I'd felt falling snow since my sister and I fooled around in the backyard of Alfar ...] [My father was being upset as usual while I recount about the all the money that we never had ...]

[Since we got it, life had moved from one nightmare to another.] [Sometimes I don't think life is worth living? What's the point to it all if it leads to unhappiness?]

[Others say it's all about your choice to be happy ... But I say different.] [I just want to remain angry alone. Alone without people. And that's why I can relate to the snow. The cold. The bitterness.] [I just get so angry that my anger calms me. It just becomes my normal.] Yeah. It's cold.

Island Girl: Where do you think this light-stone is?

Island Guy: I'm not sure, I can't see past the trees and mountains ahead.

Island Girl: But there is a post up ahead look. Says we should beware of the skelet -- Oh No! I see one! ISLAND GUY, RUN!

----- We Outrun the Snowman Monsters -----

[The blistering cold and bad weather stops me in my tracks.] [I feel out of breath from all the running about the island.] [Island Girl notices I've fallen behind.]

Island Girl: Island Guy, every second we wait the snowman group is going to influence the others around the island. It's your job to stop them...

Island Guy: [I snap.] ITS NOT MY JOB FOR ANYTHING! WHY IS IT ALWAYS ME?! ME?! ME?! THIS CONSTANT AWARENESS STOP!! SAMUEL MAKE HER STOP!!!

Island Girl: Please stop it Island Guy.

Island Guy: I C-C-AN-AN-AN Y-YEL-YEL WHENEVER I W-WANT, S-ST-STO-STOP ASKING ME TO DO STUF-FF F-FFOR YO-YOU. D-D-DO IT YOUR-YOURSELF.

Island Girl: Stop it Island Guy.

Island Guy: STOP HAVING THE CAPTAIN HAVE ME DO STUFF. ALL THESE PEOPLE ARE LOSERS. THEY WASTE MY TIME! THEY WASTE SAMUELS TIME! I HATE THEM! I JUST WANT TO BE ALONE! I WANT MY FAMILY TO BE HAPPY! LIVE IN PEACE! I HATE PEOPLE! I HATE THEM! I HATE THEM!

Island Girl: STOP IT ISLAND GUY! THERE IS NO SAMUEL!

Island Guy: [How could I have forgotten?! Perhaps it was being in a coma ... my memory had come back slowly in pieces ... but then I remembered ... I had an invisible friend watching out for me since being alone in school]

After School Hours in Detention

[The Mystery man points to the right of the snowy mountains!]

[A Bright white light is formed!] [A pathway is envisioned!]

--- Cannonball House and Then Darkstone King Returns and Then Back to Mystery Man ---

The Path of Light

The Light Grows. The Mystery Grows and Grows. This light tower is fading. And my senses awaken. I'm in a familiar blue sky. And Red clouds.

Darkstone King: The mysterious has unlocked in you and now my work is done.

Island Girl: THE DARKSTONE KING IS REAL?!

Darkstone King: I'll be waiting east of here in the Dark tower castle. Your light tower has ended here. Give my metal cylinder to the mystery man when he is ready ... And then you shall find my darkstone. But for now, show him the light.

Island Girl: WAIT! What is lightstone? What is a darkstone? Where do they take me?

Darkstone King: A Sandy Island ... Away from here ...

Mystery Man: Do you Have it? [Here is the light my brother.]

You have the light my child. Good. Continue.

Island Guy: Wait. Who are you?!

Mystery Man: You know who I am Island Guy ... You'll need to use the light when the time comes up ahead Island Guy ...

Island Girl: Oh! Did you feel that Island Guy? ... That felt like an avalanche ... Let's Get Going ... The Avalanche is beginning ... RUN!

----- We Make it inside Clue Cabin's from Avalanche: The Mystery man + Atoms Guides us through the Path of SLX -----

Island Girl: Well ... No way back now ... we're going to have go through this ... [Island Girl takes out a lantern and starts a flame] How Ironic ... Zhogol asks us to find the light-stone and it has become dark instead.

Island Guy: These houses are creepy ... [I closed my eyes and wiped them to see I was actually in a cave and not another stone hut.] [I hadn't slept since my time at Taya's rest house in the North. Like Zhogol, I was experiencing Insomnia. I was experiencing Paranoia.]

Island Girl: What should we do? We're avalanched inside this cave ... there is barely any light You doing okay Island Guy?! ... The houses are on the main Island, you gotta keep it together kid! We climbed that tower but no light-stone inside ... Perhaps there is no light-stone after all. I know Zhogol made up the snowmen, but that doesn't explain gambler Mike and Zhogol and Tyler ... They all know a Wally ... Island Guy?

Island Guy: I saw Wally Island Girl. I saw him.

Island Girl: WHAT! WHERE??! WHAT DOES HE LOOK LIKE?

Island Guy: I ... saw him ... in my dreams We'll just have to go further. I don't know Island Girl. Let's get out of here ...

Island Girl: Good point. Find out answers first, talk later ... let's get this light-stone! Hopefully this lant ----

Mystery Man: My Child! How have you Been?? So Soon? [Har Har Har!]

Island Guy: You! The Mystery man ... you sound like ...

Mystery Man: Your Mother? Your Father? Your Sister? They are all their right inside your heart. Just listen to them and the way out the darkness will be revealed.

Island Guy: I ... I miss them.

Mystery Man: C'mon child! Don't give up! Bring back your Spirit! Now My brittle bones won't be able to take you back to where you want to be most. So Take my hand my child.

Island Guy: [I slowly make my way to the mystery man.]

Mystery Man: A Bright Path awaits you boy, the atoms don't wish you join them yet. Because you: you have more of your heart to offer. Not one of ice, but of passion. Of Fire. You won't miss them for long my child! When you do see them, tell them ...

Island Guy: What? What is the Atoms? Why does this sound familiar?

Mystery Man: Hahaha! They are three fairies, but you are not ready for them yet ... Now, to guide you through your own fears ... Match what you see about the island. And then ... move to your next clue steps to the stone of light you desire. I wait ... Remember. The cave of the gargoyle!

----- Path 2 Lilviple -----

Lilviple: I'm Lilviple, one of the atoms that is living inside of you, Island Guy!

Island Guy: [I stand in shock.] Where am I?

Lilviple: You are on the island of Niinamigota silly! More specifically, you got stuck in a cave trying to find the light stone. Remember?! My sisters and I control the light. The priest and king are the dark. Together, we form you! See now?!

Island Guy: Umm ... [I find it hard to fully understand what is happening.]

Lilviple: My other sisters control your actions, your thoughts and your destiny. I myself control your emotions! And yours too Island Girl! And I feel ...Sadness...LonelinessTimidness. Don't you Island Girl?!

Island Girl: W-Wh-Wh-WHAT?! I thought I just saw a fairy in the last corner of the cave and now... I ... It's a miracle! I dunna believe it, am I dreaming?! Island Guy, d'ya see this?!

Island Guy: [I turn to Island Girl.] Yes. Yes I see her. Lilviple ... where are you sisters?

Lilviple: My sisters and I form the atom of old! They are here with you ... On the S.S. Stockhausen. In the Pits. In the box of ice. And In the snow.

Island Guy: How come I haven't seen you until now?

Lilviple: We fairies come to those in need of help. When their direction is lost. When they are close to losing their life.

Island Guy: AM I DEAD?

Lilviple: No ... not Ye---- Well, speak more to my sister about it.

[Push the Rocks in the Basket.]

----- Path 3 Rindlepine -----

Rindlepine: I'm Fairy Rindlepine! I see you already helped my sister put rocks in her basket! Well done!

Island Guy: What was the point of all that? Why did you come to us now?

Rindlepine: Helping is caring isn't it?! You needed to move some rocks to get out of the cave ... you just didn't know it.

Island Girl: Oi Missy Fairy! I dunno what mind games yer playin at but it won't fly with me... HUYA!

Island Guy: [Island Girl made a kick towards Rindlepine but nothing happened.] [The fairy simply floated right through her.] Stop it Island Girl. We met Lilviple, she says that you are a part of us, that you live inside of us. That doesn't make any sense.

Rindlepine: Of course it does little islander! See what I made Island Girl do? I just controlled her actions!

Island Girl: NO ONE CONTROLS ME YA DINGY LITTLE PISS FAIRY !!! HIYA! HIYA! HIYA!

Rindlepine: TEHEHEHEHE!!! You can't touch me little one ... and so: Your actions in this next test will help you discover a part of you !! Make your way around the icy hearts and those that run in your minds ... I BEGONE!

----- Path 4 + 5 Enverlopa -----

Enverlopa: Feeling Cold my little Pretties?! The senses in your skin crawls with a ghostly pleasure no?!

Island Girl: Well Said!

Island Guy: I remember this ... in the ice box.

Enverlopa: Yes. It is a part of your senses. Your movement. From spinning on the ice.

Island Guy: Yes. I slid my way across the ice to obtain the rudders. I chopped down trees and weeds to locate the masts.

Enverlopa: Exactly!

Island Girl: So did my movements take me aboard the ship? Take me to Niinamigota?

Enverlopa: In part my dear. And so did your feelings, your actions and most importantly. Your destiny. She is next door. So use your senses again Island Guy, and slide across the ice. We will all be around again for you soon, you can count on that!

----- Path 6 Atom Girl -----

Island Guy: You! ... It's you again! ... Are you my destiny?

Atom Girl: Is that what my sisters told you? I am you!

Island Guy: I don't understand.

Atom Girl: We are the Atoms! And right there, at the center, your heart is your queen: me! We form you and you form us!

Island Guy: How ... do I get back home?!

Atom Girl: ... [Sigh] I don't think you can.

Island Guy: No! I don't believe you! I want to see my mommy! I want to see my brother Timmy!

Atom Girl: It's been quite amazing seeing you two grow together since leaving Alfar. I knew you two would be together at some point once again. You are both a reflection of each other. It is quite sad that Gzhapel makes you grow up to the young adults you've become today. No more fear of the dark or the little monsters that creep under the bed ... [Giggle.] [Giggle.]

You've become so brave Island Guy! Helping that poor girl on the ship. Seeing your father and mother help little Tori to the life raft. But then ... a lightning storm appeared out the sky and then Wally came. The S.S. Stockhausen broke in half and your father was in so much pain.

Tears rolled down his face as you stood still. Uncomprehending. The atoms forced themselves upon you and the waters dragged you to the abyss. But then ... [Giggle Giggle.]

Island Guy: Wally!

Atom Girl: That's right! Wally was there to guide you back ... and he's going to help you get home. ... You keep following your heart.

Bye Island Guy! Bye Island Girl! [Giggle Giggle]

Island Girl: I don't understand. Island Guy? How come we can't leave?

Island Guy: Niinamigota ... Im - Imag - Imagination. Mom? [Crying]

Island Girl: Whut? Island Guy ... I'm scared.

[Island Girl holds me tight.] [I'm shaking from the cold in the cave. I don't understand what's going on.]

[I had to get back to Alfar. No matter the cost.]

Island Girl: You ... you are just like me Island Guy. Aren't you? Is that why we are trapped here together? In a dream? Why is everyone asking us to help them? Why is no one helping us? Where do we go from here to get off this island?

Island Guy: Don't Give up Island Girl. I was asleep for a long time on this island ... But now it's time to wake up.

----- We Speak outside before Going to the Imaginary Rainforest -----

Island Girl: We made it out of the cave kid.

Island Guy: [The white light further beckons me to another cave.] The light-stone must be in there ...

Island Girl: Do you want to talk about what happened in the cave Island Guy?

Island Guy: Why didn't you tell me you were just like me? Why didn't you tell me this while in school? Did you know?

Island Girl: My parents told me about it a long time ago ... But you aren't like me. You're different. More quiet. I was always annoyed by my parents. But you ... You bubbled up your emotions all this time. Its time you let them out. Tell me how you really feel.

Island Guy: AAA
HH [I scream and I scream.] [And I cry and cry.] [Island Girl starts crying too ...] I WANT TO GO HOME SO BADLY. I WANT ALL THIS TO GO AWAY. [And I'm taken back to a time when I let my emotions get the better of me]

Flashback Sons Wrath to Father

Dave: [Singing and playing] Imma prayin. Imma prayin. For the Winter to end and the summer to grow! The crops stay alive and the farm continues to a grow! The cows and the fields stay of good health, and my son ...

Island Guy: WHY ARE YOU SINGING?! I'M TRYING TO CONCENTRATE ON MY MATH!!!

Dave: ... Oh, I'm sorry son. Getting my old chops warmed up, I haven't played my music in so ----

Island Guy: I DON'T CARE WHAT YOU HAVE AND HAVEN'T DONE! JUST SHUT UP! YOU ARE USELESS AT PLAYING! I DON'T WANT TO HEAR IT! YOU SOUND UGLY! SHUT UP! YOU AND MOM CAN'T DO ANYTHING FOR US! I HATE YOU! I HATE YOU! I HATE YOU! I HATE YOU! I HATE YOU! I HATE YOU! I HATE YOU!

Dave: [SOBS]

I took in all of Rivers bullying and in the end, I became just like Rivers. I'd never heard my dad cry before until that night. It sounded like a wounded animal or a dog stuck in a cage. It was very sad. So I just stood there and watched my father cry. My father's stress and my mother's pain, they couldn't take it all anymore. I'm sorry mom. I'm sorry dad. I'm sorry TORI. I just never got a chance to say it.

--- In the Mystery Forest ---

Island Girl: We are in a rainforest! It was a cave outside and now a forest ... what is going on Island Guy?!

Island Guy: The Rain ... It feels like ... home. I see my mother talking to me outside in the playpen while she's telling me that I am different. I am relaxed.

Island Girl: Me too. WAIT! Island Guy, do you like the rain?! YOU SHOULD HAVE TOLD ME! I LOVE THE RAIN!

Island Guy: I --- I don't love the rain.

Island Girl: Why Not?

Island Guy: The rain brings me peace... But I only have bad memories of the rain Island Girl can I ask you something?

Island Girl: What's that?

Island Guy: When we left the Ship, Narbule mentioned snowman and you froze in fear at the thought?

Tori and I used to build snowmen all the time! They are great! ... So why don't you like them?

Island Girl: I --- it was two years ago. My pet dog died and I was building a snowman when it happened. It's --- It's a horrible memory. My dog fell through and Ice and I ... I've never liked the snow since.

Island Guy: You braved the winter here. You should be proud Island Girl! Just breathe like I do. ... Anyways, let's go. We have a mystery to uncover about the snowmen and this light-stone ... You'll need to be brave if we encounter any snowmen okay?!

Island Girl: I will.

----- We Make it to Lightstone Cave -----

Island Guy: It's brighter in here than it is outside Island Girl. Can you see the flashing light?

Island Girl: Yes Island Guy. I can feel it. The light stone is in here for sure! Its flashing white!

Island Girl: This is the signs from the pit! Do you remember Island Guy?

Island Guy: Yeah I remember ... I think I see even more symbols up ahead ... let's keep following them!

----- In the Mountains we take the light stone, Pelleck, Quallack appear, start an avalanche. -----

Pelleck: Quallack! I think this one is ripe for the taking! A little lost boy ready to have his soul eaten. HAR HAR!

Quallack: Good One Pelleck! Yer not gonna chase em around like last time, right?!

Rivers: BACK! BACKAWAY MONSTERS!!

Island Girl: How D'you know about them piggy?

Pelleck: BECAUSE I AM ANGER!

Quallack: AND I AM FEAR!

Pelleck: Tell us children, what makes you the most scared? Like You Island Girl?! Watch the mound of snow ... As it Grows!

--- The Mound grows into a Snowman ---

Island Girl: AAAAAHHHH!!! [QUIET SCREAMS] THE SNOWMEN! THE SNOWMEN! Get away from us you monsters!

Pelleck: Now Quallack! Let's do the Avalanche Dance and eats their bones as they suffer to die in the snow!

Quallack: Aye Pelleck! Let the Dance Commence! Back to the Gargoyle Caves!!! TE-HE!

----- An Avalanche Begins and we have to run out of light stone cave to live! -----

Island Girl: KEEP GOING! THIS PLACE IS COLLAPSING!

----- We Exit the Light stone cave as it crumbles. -----

Island Girl: Phew that Was Close! No way back now ...

Rivers: Now what guys?

Island Girl: More like, how the carnation did you get on this island with us?

Rivers: Well. My father Jasper got a cheque from the Mayor and then, we decided to move somewhere warm without snow ... I guess not warm enough apparently.

Island Girl: Well, there's no going back, so you're coming with us! Island Guy, do you remember what the mystery man said about ...

[A Fain familiar voice Passes through the wind. Go back to the Cave. Find me, FIND ME!]

Island Guy: Uh yeah! I think. Remind me?

Island Girl: The mystery man said the cave ... I wonder if it's the same Gargoyle cave where we found the wood-chipper?

Island Guy: You're right Island Girl. Perhaps the answers we're looking for about the rustic metal are in there. Come on Rivers! I want some answers!

----We Use the Light-stone to Activate the stone movement in the first cave ----

Island Guy: Who are You?

Gloria: A Garden Be Vonderful! Vunderful! WONDERFUL! HUYAYAYAHEEEE!!! SE ME SOON! HUNNIES!!!

Island Guy: Who was that?

Island Girl: I don't Kn --- THIS ROOM! SNOWMAN! okay, be brave, be brave. Look! Island Guy, another gargoyle statue!

--- We speak to the gargoyle, the snowmen turn out to be monsters about the island controlled by Wally against the Mystery Man' Will ----

Island Girl: Drat! It's a dead end here Island Guy. That man lead us to nothing. Just another statue. HELLO?!

[I ignore Island Girl. She tries talking to the statue but this time it remains quiet. Solemn. Sad. I take a second look at the gargoyle and realize that the two gargoyle statues were the same two statues I'd seen in Wally's home.]

Island Guy: Wait. No, not just a dead end Island Girl. Look.

[A small drawing of a diamond was etched into the gargoyle's chest. I could swear it was not there a moment ago. I touch the gargoyle.]

Island Girl: Umm Island Guy? The gargoyle is glowing blue!

Island Guy: Yes Island Girl! We placed the light stone and the cave is beginning to feel our presence.

[A bright flashing white light blinds the cave as Diamonds form in its back.]

Wally: Hello my child.

Island Guy: WALLY!

Island Girl: AGH! A Giant Demon Monster! Island Guy, how do you know this thing?!

Wally: No need to be afraid Island Girl.

Island Girl: NOW HOW DO YOU KNOW ME!

Wally: I was there, on the boat with your parents. Yours too Rivers ... Do you not remember?!

Rivers: Wha - wha - what a-a-are y-y-y-you talking about?

Wally: When the Stockhausen crashed, I'd fated for you three to meet. It was your destinies to reconnect with your past. You needed to find yourselves.

Rivers: What are you saying?

Wally: Look around you! The Slime. The Bull. The Skeley. The Draggy. ... and my two loyal soldiers. Quallack and Pelleck!

Island Guy: Wait. I-i-i-i don't understand. I THOUGHT YOU WERE MY FRIEND!

Wally: I am more than just your friend Island Guy I am you.

[Island Girl and Rivers stood in shock as I see a reflection of myself in a motionless mirror.]

Wally: And I am you Island Girl. [Wally turns into Island Girl.]

Wally: And I am you Rivers. [Wally turns into Rivers.]

Death encapsulates ones soul as does life does it not? Have you not read my poetry about the island, I am quite the poet if I don't say so myself!

Island Girl: THEN WHO ARE THE ATOMS?!

Wally: I AM THE ATOMS!!

[My head starts to spin as I see red about the cave. Wally begins to hover in the air much like the light stone that I'd found ... when ... ZZZZZZZZZZZ!!!!]

----- Island Guy has a nightmare, Quallack and Pelleck are burning down his home -----

May: LEAVE US ALONE! LEAVE US ALONE!

Wally: Yes and no. Up is down and left is right. What part of control do you not understand..... I VANISH NOW!

----- We head down below the Deck [Parallel Process of an old Quote] -----

[As I trip down the hall, I'm the last to leave the ship. My dad and mom are gone with the ticket lady. I feel both solstice and loneliness. And I'm Lost. Lost amidst the cold waters that bind my heart. My throat. My Soul.] REPEAT ON LOOP!

----- We fade to blue and the white, and wake up on the port docks with the captain, island guy was hallucinating in the lightstone mountains,

Island Girl had rescued him from avalanche and then dragged him here ---

Narbule: So! You solved the Snowman Mystery?! What's it about, who are they?!

Island Guy: ... Wally. The mystery man. Zhogol, and the cave atoms.

Narbule: What's that kid? Ma old sea brain did ne understand a word of that ...

Island Girl: Don't worry about it Cap! Did Zhogol get back here safely? He lost his mind while ez' was north in that cabin alone.

The snowmen aren't real, Zhogol was very ill. Has the Cabin Fever.

Narbule: Ooohhh I see! That's a toughin' one! He's resting below in the ships quarters now ... Poor kid had to go through all that.

[I looked at Island Girl angrily. She'd hadn't told Narbule the entire truth.]

Island Guy: No, there was a Wally, sir Captain! And Cave Atoms. We almost died!

Narbule: Oh! What's a cave Atom Island Guy?! Island Girl ... did your friend suffer the same condition? I hope it's only temporary Island Guy.

Island Girl: Island Guy, you don't remember. But after we got Zhogol back out of the mountains, an avalanche began and we had to run for safety in a cave.

You tripped and bumped your head on a stone, you were knocked out. That's when Zhogol and I bumped into Rivers. He too was on the ship with his father Jasper!

[It was slowly coming back to me. I could see Zhogol running ahead down the mountainside while Rivers and Island Girl were carrying me.] [I could barely open my eyes. My head was so dizzy. The sea wind had somehow given me enough life to wake up back on the Island port.] [Rivers was the hero this time.]

Island Guy: I --- can't believe it. B-b-but th-th cloud ---. Mm-my Imag ---. Brain. I'm sorry Island Girl, thank you Rivers. Thank you both. I can't believe we all ended up on that boat.

Rivers: Pfft! You haven't changed all these years! A goody two shoes! ... I mean - your welcome. I'm a bit different now. I realize how important school is.

Island Girl: Yessir! Ain't it the truth! And I don't think we're gonna be goin back to the Light stone mountains any time soon, so ... Let's get to the mines!

---- Mission 6 Begin! Chapter 6: An enemy and a friend. A quest for Rustic Metal ----

[We then head into The Mines to get the Rustic Metal after Rivers removes the Ice Blocks]

Island Guy: Do you hear that noise?

Rivers: What noise?

[It was just like in the pits.] [The Devils Screeching.] [A Faint sound of steel against steel up ahead,]

Island Guy: It's the carts. The miners are still down here. It has a rhythm to it.

Island Girl: Wow! Good ears Cutie!

Island Guy: I would like to get out of here as fast as I can.

Rivers: Agreed Island Guy. This places is creepy.

Island Girl: Well Rivers, the quicker we get the finishing touches to the boat, the quicker we can get out of here.

Rivers: Actually, I think my pa and I are staying on the island. Some of the islanders have already made up their minds. My father Jasper says the soil here is far richer than that of Alfar! Especially on the beaches when it rains.

Island Girl: Well; If we can't get all of the rustic metal back now, we can always come back. Hopper to it guys!

Miner Mink: Thank goodness! Narbule finally sent someone down here, we've needed a whole lot of help excavating.

Island Girl: I think I saw you on the boat! Who are you?

Miner Mink: I'm miner Mink! Myself and three other Miners we're planning on travelling to Exvelten to find some work. Alfar has nothing for us.

Island Guy: I sympathize. My Father found it tough to farm the crops and keep the animals well fed.

Miner Mink: Farming is a tough business, I can tell you're a strong young man. You would have made your father proud.

Island Guy: My ... Father. [This Island had changed me. I had turned from hating my father to missing him.]

Island Girl: Is this cart for the rustic metal?

Miner Mink: Yes indeed! We weren't sure what we were gonna find underground here. The Cap had us looking while we took turns sleeping aboard the ship. Alfred had discovered pine board just south of here and Terry and I are carting the rustic metal back.

Island Girl: TERRY! MY FATHER?!

Miner Mink: No, afraid not. Sorry kid. Terry is aboard the boat sleeping right now and Nisken is just east of here completing the final moving stages. We could really use your help.

Rivers: As a newcomer, I say we've got this! Three faces beats two.

Island Girl: We'll cart the rest of the rustic metal back to you! Count on Us!

----- We Head downwards to the Mines to Collect the Rustic Metal -----

Island Guy: Do you hear that noise?

Rivers: What noise?

[It was just like in the pits.] [The Devils Screeching.] [A Faint sound of steel against steel up ahead.]

Island Guy: It's the carts. The miners are still down here. It has a rhythm to it.

Island Girl: Wow! Good ears Cutie!

Island Guy: I would like to get out of here as fast as I can.

My father Jasper says the soil here is far richer than that of Alfar! Especially on the beaches when it rains.

Island Girl: Well; If we can't get all of the rustic metal back now, we can always come back.

---- 1st Miner Mink ----

Mink: Thank goodness! Narbule finally sent someone down here, we've needed a whole lot of help excavating.

Island Girl: I think I saw you on the boat! Who are you?

Mink: I'm miner Mink! Myself and three other Miners we're planning on travelling to Exvelten to find some work. Alfar has nothing for us.

Island Guy: I sympathize. My Father found it tough to farm the crops and keep the animals well fed.

Mink: Farming is a tough business, I can tell you're a strong young man. You would have made your father proud.

Island Guy: My ... Father.

[This Island had changed me. I had turned from hating my father to missing him.]

Island Girl: Is this cart for the rustic metal?

Mink: Yes indeed! We weren't sure what we were gonna find underground here. The Cap had us looking while we took turns sleeping aboard the ship. Alfred had discovered pine board just south of here and Terry and I are carting the rustic metal back.

Rivers: As a newcomer, I say we've got this! Three faces beats two.

Island Girl: We'll cart the rest of the rustic metal back to you! Count on Us!

---- We Deliver Cart the Metal Back #1 ----

Mink: Great! I see the metal! Thanks Kids! And Take this! With all the rocks down here, you may need to blast past them if you are to get into the rustic metal!

[Dynamiter Added.]

I guess I shall take leave and head back up to get some fresh air! I haven't seen light on the island in five days, I'm starting to feel claustrophobic.

Well ... See ya kids!

Rivers: Mink said his friends were down here. Let's help them!

---- A Beautiful Ice reminder of the Past ----

Island Girl: Wow, this ice is beautiful! Look how it sparkle's in the dark. [Gasp!]

Rivers: HIYA! [Kick] I got it Island Girl, don't worry.

Island Guy: This Ice ... It looks familiar. I saw this in light stone cave with you. Remember Island Girl?!

Rivers: Hmph, I don't know Island Girl. There's something troubling about this ice. That sign says to not touch it.

[My father would get depressed over the winters in Alfar. If there was no crops, we couldn't eat for a few days.]

[So he would go over to the local Pub in Alfar.] [2 Years ago in Alfar.]

Dave: ... No Food. No Water. And look at all the other neighbors and villagers stuffing their faces.

Tori: I'm Hungry Daddy.

Margaret: We don't have any money my daughter. Stay warm next to the fireplace okay? If we all huddle together, we can get more warmth in here with the others ... What a harsh winter!

Tori: I do what I want mommy! I'm not your property!

[My sister, the fire-bolt.] [I get up and move to the bartender.]

Island Guy: Hello. Can I --- Can I have food?

Bartender: We've got some food left. Each plate is a dollar each, and steak is two dollars each.

[I look back at my family and count the coins leftover in my pocket.] [It had taken me all year to find them on the ground and I had only a total of five.]

Island Guy: One steak and three potatoes. I have five coins. Here.

[The owner of the pub looks at me disappointed but then looks at my family with shame.] [I could see how sad he was that my family looked starved and without food.] [I don't think I gave him enough money.] [I hate money.]

Bartender: Don't worry kid, Keep your hard earned money. Your family works hard. I know them well.

Island Guy: Thank you! [I pick up the coins off the table and look at the last one.] [It glowed ever so brightly in the tavern.] This is my lucky coin.

Bartender: So it is kid! Here's the food.

[I brought the food back to my family and they were in shock. They thought an extra bit of food was some sort of miracle.] [It was no miracle.] [It was a bartender's Kindness.] [I clutch the lucky coin in my pocket.] [My family nearly starved.] [I nearly starved.]

Island Girl: Is that? ... Nah, it ain't him.

Island Guy: It's cold down here. But the Pub was warm. The potatoes were warm.

Island Girl: What's this about potatoes? This is just an ice block. C'mon Rivers and Island Guy. You princes need to lead the way.

Rivers: On it your majesty!

Island Girl: Don't you be sarcastic Masters! Follow yer Queen!

---- 2nd Miner Nisken ----

Nisken: Ey Kid. I'm a Miner. Names Nisken. Please a meetin.

[This man's husky voice was like my dad's and his miners outfit had seen better days ...] [The cuts and slashes on his chin indicated he'd been in lots of fights.]

[Being me, sometimes I'd make visual associations with others before I begin speaking with them ...]

Island Girl: This is Island Guy. He's in his little own world.

Nisken: Huh. But ya islanders are a long way from the top of Niinamigota. Ye should head back and leave the big work for the hard men.

Island Girl: Oi! We ladies can pack a punch too ya blubbert! See me muscles?! [Island Girl flexes her muscles.]

Nisken: Ma apologies, yungin ... wars have made me a little stale. I reckon a new friend on the S.S. Stockhausen was also a knight. He got attacked.

Island Girl: 'pologi iz accepted! Yer Cool!

Island Guy: We spoke to Mink. We're here to gather rustic metal. Did you all build snowmen down here?

Nisken: Unsure. Not me anyways. Just saw it as I was digging. And It hasn't melted; It's preserved.

Island Girl: Im'ma Confused ... Hows that possible?

Nisken: It means that ... Someone was here before us. Mystical energies. Of the dead.

Rivers: Pfft! That's stupid. We're not dead.

Island Guy: It's not stupid Rivers. ... It's Wally.

Nisken: ... Well thanks for the help anyways! I'll cart it back once you got it!

---- We Deliver Cart the Metal Back #2 ----

Nisken: Yep! It looks like it's all there ... Well, I'm off kids. Alfred should be just about ready to finish his shift. He's south of here ... I'll be sure to unlock the gate! And be careful! The underground in Niinamigota is prone to earthquakes. Watch your step!

---- 3rd Miner Alfred ---

Alfred: Hey! Theres no kids allowed down here!

Island Girl: We got Nisken and Minks Metal!

Alfred: Oh, great! Well, this is the last of them ... I'm Alfred by the way.

Island Girl: Island Girl. And this is Rivers and Island Guy.

Alfred: Well, I hope to see you around the island before the ship gets fixed. This is the furthest we've dug into the mines. After this haul we can all go home ...

Rivers: Wait ... I see a path further down ---

Alfred: NO DON'T GO DOWN THERE! ... I mean. We've dug further, but we've lost two miners. Lizzy and Terry.

Island Girl: Terry! My father! WHERE?!

Alfred: I --- I don't know about that ... Just return to the surface, it's too dangerous to go further into the mine.

Island Girl: No I'm not leaving without him! We'll get yer metal!

---- We Deliver Cart the Metal Back #3 ----

Alfred: That's it! That's the last of the cart metal! You can visit us at our mining house. It's just east of here nearest to the lighthouse.

Rivers: Hey no problem, Alfred. We'll be sure to visit you all. Mink and Nisken have safely moved back out of the mines.

Alfred: That's good. Very good. We're missing two more miners south of here. There's a fault line up ahead, be careful crossing it. Take this key.

Beyond that point, you're on your own. I'll get out of here now. And Please. Be careful. Bye!

---- An Earthquake Begins ----

Island Guy: Gah! It's worse down here!

Island Girl: Shoot! We didn't watch our step. This is the fault line. I guess there is no way back now. Time might not be on our side. Another cave collapsing!

Rivers: You got it Island Guy. You're not too bad after all. You too Rivers. [In the end, Rivers turned out alright I guess.]

Island Guy: Find the other two miners, get them out of here to safety. And then us.

----- We Help Lizzy + Terry and Get Back Ashore -----

Lizzy: GAH! THE ROCKS! I THINK MY LEG IS BROKE!

Rivers: That's a girl's voice!

Island Girl: You Lizzy?!

Lizzy: Yeah. And there is a way out west of here. Terry is trapped too above me.

Island Girl: TERRY! My father!

Lizzy: sorry no. My brother.

Island Girl: Oh.

Lizzy: There's a pressure switch that can hold the boulder at bay. You'll need to bring the cart around and push it onto the switch. Think you can do that?

Island Girl: Got it. Rivers, help me with Lizzy!

Island Girl: It's working!

Rivers: All of us need to work together as a team. This place is collapsing.

Island Girl: Don't panic Rivers, we got time. [On the inside, I was terrified.] [Thoughts of my mother flashed through my head.

Each push led me closer to Alfar and home.]

Island Guy: Push again Lizzy!

Lizzy : It's heavy! [BRAGGH!]

Rivers: Nice Push!

Island Girl: Island Guy, I'm starting to feel sick!

Island Guy: It's the dark and claustrophobia!

Island Girl: Claustro - WHAT?!

Island Guy: It's like a fear of small [HARGH!] ... Spaces!

Island Girl: Oh!

Lizzy: LAST PUSH! [GRAHHPHHH!]

[It was the toughest and slowest push.] [My legs, knees, ankles, and feet were exhausted and broken running around this endless island.]

Rivers: It's going! Let's get ready to jump past the boulder!

Lizzy: Keep going, don't give up Island Guy!

Island Guy: I won't.

Lizzy: Terry!

Terry: Hey Sis! YOUR LEG! I need two of you so we can push the pressure switches at the same time. Grab a Cart! We All work together!

Take the one on the right, I got the one on the left!

----- We drop Lizzy + Terry Up on Shore -----

Island Girl: You did it Island Guy! You got us out!

Terry: Thanks you three. We'll drop by the boat to let Narbule know no one is down there anymore. You can meet us back at our hut after this is all over.

Its west of here, near the lighthouse ...

Island Girl: Wait! How are you going to get back Terry? There no land and only sea.

Lizzy: We are excellent swimmers kids. Toodles!

Island Girl: Hey wait! I'm a great swimmer too!

Rivers: And so am I Island Girl. But ya don't hear me braggin' bout it.

Island Guy: I ... can't swim. [I looked back down the mining hole. There would only be one way back for me now.]

You should swim back guys, I'll ... F-f-find an-another way. [It was coming back.]

Rivers: No Island Guy. Time is Ticking! You're my friend now, and friends do not leave other friends behind.

Island Girl: [Sigh] Crud. We're goin back down kid. GO GO GO!

---- We Meet Wally in the Ice ----

Island Girl: WAIT! WHERE ARE YOU GOING?!

Island Guy: ... I ... recognize that chair. ... And those statues. The mystery man is ...

Wally: Of course I am! And of course I am not. Good to see you again my child. You survived a horrible nightmare. How are you doing?

[I look behind me and see my friends are nowhere to be found. They must have gotten lost.]

Island Guy: Where are my friends?

Wally: Trapped. Behind the ice. Just like you.

Island Guy: ... I don't understand.

Wally: You're still in a coma. Why do you think that nightmare felt so real Island Guy? Do you think I am playing games? Im - Ima - Imagination?

You stutter Island Guy. Some take years to come out of a coma. Some take days. But you. Will take a lifetime.

Island Guy: No. ... I don't believe you.

Wally: The images in your mind. The sister of peace. The sister of joy. The sister of love. You. Island Girl really did love you. And so did your parents.

You can feel those atoms can't you? The atoms of your family, friends?

Island Guy: STOP! STOP IT! STOP PUTTING IMAGES INTO MY HEAD! I JUST SAW MY FRIENDS. THEY WERE RIGHT BEHIND ME.

Wally: I'm sorry my child. When we first met in the blue waves... You were curious. Weren't you?

Island Guy: I remember. ... and then I was on a raft.

Wally: Yes you were my child!

Island Guy: But I felt sick and then fainted. [I heard Wally the devil sigh a heavy breath.] You needed my help from the blue.

Island Guy: THEN WHY DIDN'T YOU SEND ME HOME? : [I was very angry.]

Wally: Because ... Because you wanted to see Island Girl. [Chuckles.] Do you remember? In that cave? With the Switches?

When you and Island Girl explored for my wood chipper?! Your first quest!

Island Guy: Yeah I remember. That felt good! [Chuckles.] [For once, I felt a strong connection with Wally.]

Wally: And then you solved the puzzle. Just like that! A little Island boy!

Island Guy ... We've done so much on this island. And so many puzzles. Finding my way. I'm still lost.

Wally: The younger boy you once were would be so proud of the young adult you have become.

Island Guy: I hope so, I wanted to save my family.

Wally: And you did! But a younger part of you will always be chasing yourself until you let go. And that's why I am here. And I as well.

[Wally looks at the mystery man with a bright fondness ... I wasn't sure why.]

Island Guy: Wally: If I find my way off this island, will I awake from my coma?

Wally: THERE YOU GO! Yes. Yes you will. Do you remember the sounds those first switches made?

Island Guy: I do Wally.

Wally: Walk the path you were in that cave with fear and desire. Quallack and Pelleck watches!

---- Boss Battle Wally and Three Atom Fairies ----

Rivers: Island Guy, the rustic metal Down at the bottom of the mines WHAT THE?!

[A Faint familiar voice Passes through the wind.]

Wally: I WILL BURY YOUR BONES!

Rivers: Uh oh ...

Island Girl: Island Guy is that your ...

Island Guy: WALLY! GRAB THE METAL QUICK!

Wally: YOU MUST FACE THOSE YOU FEAR TO FACE! AND YOUR PAST SHALL CATCH UP TO YOU!

Island Girl: I see a way out of here. Just. One. Last. Rustic. Metals!

Wally: And just one last death Island Guy...

Island Guy: That sounded like Quallack.

Island Girl: Qual -- ? Like bird ?

Rivers: MONSTERS!

Wally: See you soon. Island Guy.

Rivers: So we got all of it. Look ... to the right. The back of the cave has opened up,

Island Girl: OI! Good aye Rivers! That's em dark brimstone we burned to bits with the sulfur. It's gone ... One last stretch! Onwards and upwards!

Island Girl: GRRR! THAT CAPTAIN NARBULE! I'M GONNA HAVE A FEW WORDS WITH HIM.

Rivers: Well, at least we got it. Was that all of it Island Guy? [I take out the list of items from my sack.]

Island Guy: No. Not just yet Rivers. The S.S. Stockhausen needs both a Carbonator Generator and Rudder Fuel. The rustic metal will fix it entirely.
... But it still needs to move. ... : I wonder what is a carbonator gen ---. ... I want to get off Niinamigota.

----- We Deliver the Rustic Metal to the Cap'n -----

Island Girl: [Angry] HEY! WE HAVE A BONE TO PICK WITH YOU!

Narbule: [Nervously] Wh-wh- what-at's the problem kiddos?

Island Girl: YOU TOLD US THAT YOU DIDN'T KNOW WHERE THE RUSTIC METAL WAS!
YOU SHOULD HAVE CORRECTED ME THE FIRST TIME O'CAPYTAIN!! AND NOT ONLY THAT!
THIS PLACE IS ONE GIANT TRAP HOLE! WE ALMOST DIED! TWICE!

Narbule: [Cough] [Cough] [Cough] I d-d-don't rem-mem -ember that.

Island Girl: LIAR LIAR! PANTS ON FIRE!

Rivers: Island Girl, lets cool down and start this all over again. There was an accident. The mines collapsed.

Island Girl: JUST LIKE THE PIT DID!

Rivers: We have as much metal as we could carry. The other miners should have come back here to return the rest. Here you go.

[Rustic metal Removed.]

Narbule: A-an-and Th-th-the miners did. ... J-j-just on- one m-m-m-ore step... ... C-c-c-closer t-tto h-h-h-home.

[The captain wasn't shaken by Island Girl's temper. Something was off. Narbule was stuttering like me.] [I felt sympathetic.]

Island Guy: Are you okay Narbule?

Narbule: I ... um. Zhogol was right. The demons ... they are real. A skeleton approached me. Wally.

Island Girl: FOR THE LAST BLOODY TIME! MONSTERS. AREN'T. REAL.

Narbule: Y-you're right Island Guy. And he came to me. And said ... "The last two trials await for you." That you must face fear and desire one more time ...
The Rudder Fuel. The Carbonator Generator.

Island Guy: Quallack. Pelleck.

Rivers: What?! Are you speaking cryptic Island Guy? [I ignore Island Girl and Rivers.]

Island Guy: [Angry] This whole time Narbule; did you know where anything was? Was this all a fool's errand? [Narbule bowed his head in shame.]

Narbule: I am of no use Island Guy. I'm sorry. I hear whispers and hopes from the islanders of buried treasure and our lost items. But all of that floated away. I was only a guide for you to keep you on your feet. I never thought this ship would get built at all. And now, since all the islanders have pitched in, it's almost complete! The islanders say the fuel for the ship is contained by the souls of those lost in the sea.

Rivers: So then: where is the Rudder Fuel and Carbonator Generator old man?

Narbule: I guess our luck had to run out sometime. If it's to fill the island souls, look east: There's a graveyard down there.

[I clutch my lucky coin one last time deep in my pockets and think of my sister. Mother. Father.]

Island Guy: Not luck. Bravery. C'mon Rivers and Island Girl. I know what to do.

[I have my pixie jar.] [I was not giving up.] [Even with no help or Direction.] [I will find the Rudder Fuel.] [I will find the Carbonator Generator.] [Mom ...]

Island Girl: So what? The Fuel is in your tomb? HAVE YOU BEEN KEEPING IT FROM US THE WHOLE TIME?! STASHING IT AWAY!

Rivers: We just want to know where you'd think it would be?

Island Girl: And how do we do that?

Rivers: Let's leave him alone Island Girl. We're sorry to have bothered you.

Last I explored this way, there was four tombstones and a well above here. Is it still there?

Island Girl: Yep! We were here for our first mission! A Sails Mast! Remember Island Guy?

[I was daydreaming again.]

Island Guy: Let's get the fuel first and then find where we can mix it for the Cap.

The graveyard maybe the place to go look for clues then ... Let's go there!

---- We Head north to unlock the Tombstones [1-20 Side Missions] and Get the Rudder Fuel [Defeat Quallack and Pelleck] SAMUEL RETURNS! ----

Island Girl: This place ... is a mess. I ... I'd taken care of this place nearly 4 months agoWhat happened?

[Island Girl looked very very grim.] [For the first time, I felt she was ...] [...] Quiet.] [...]Sad.] [I pause to take a look at the graveyard sign.]

[I remember a tombstone left outside my home.] [Here on Niinamigota.] [It wasn't a mere coincidence. It was a sign from my Mother and Father.]

[Maybe the praying worked.]

Island Guy: Do you notice the tombstones?

Island Girl: Yeah. The islanders and I all helped build the graves of those that were lost. We have to give back to the souls.

Rivers: To keep giving and helping even when a so called "Vacation" is hard.

Island Girl: Pfft! Very funny Rivers. ... So then we read each grave marker and then in order to move forward ...

Rivers: We do what the tombstone says.

[I look to the warm red sky.] [And Close my eyes for an old friend.]

Samuel: Hello Island Guy!

Island Guy: Samuel!

Island Girl: Samuel Returns!

Samuel: H-h-h-here to hel-he-p y-you when you need m-m-m-me th-th-the m-most Island Guy!

Island Guy: Thanks Samuel. You sound much better!

Rivers: Island Guy? You talking to yourself?! What the heck is wrong with you?!

Island Girl: Rivers! You know better!

Rivers: Sorry. Old Habits.

Island Guy: It's okay Rivers. You both are a part of me now. You too Samuel. I've come to accept that. ... Look up ahead!

[Samuel appeared to be pointing at a fiery lava pit. And beyond the graves it would be quite some challenge to get there.]

Island Girl: That looks strange. I see ... I see my parents.

Island Guy: Mine too. I miss you Samuel. Is this ATOMLAND?

Samuel: Y-y-yy-es! B-b-b-but g--g-g-get fuel first th-th-there. On-n-n- M-m-m-main land. W-w-w-ith A-a-atoms! I-i-i- R-r-remain h-h-h-ere!

Island Guy: The Atoms! YES! THEY CAN HELP! Island Girl, Rivers, there was a little shore, above light stone mountains. We ran past it.

Island Girl: So you think it's there?

Island Guy: Yes ... I can feel it. Samuel you'll be comfortable here?! In a graveyard?!

Samuel: I'll be ok-okey-d-d-d-dokey!

At this time, you may choose whether you want a complete experience: By helping the islanders as a mandatory requirement or by finishing the main storyline without having to help others. You will not be penalized for this decision and can still help the islanders at any time. This will not affect achievement listing, but rather, progress to the end of the game faster.

[Helping Islanders is Mandatory. , I can help later If I want ... [Helping Islanders is Mandatory.] Be it on your quest O' Capytain!]

--- We then get the Rudder fuel at the Island of Dead Souls [Made by the Atoms] Ethereal to main land [Real] ---

Island Guy: This place ... it looks like something the Atoms would build. Lilviple ... Enverlopa ... Rindlepine ... and the Atom Girl. It has to be ATOMLAND.

Island Girl: These atoms sure stick in your craw huh Island Guy? But I don't recall seeing this place before.

Island Guy: That's because it's not for the other islanders. It's for us. Look: the plants. The sea. It's ethereal ... Rivers?

Rivers: I'm thinking ... Wait! Look at that!

[Rivers could see his mother Janey while Island Girl could see her own family off in the distance.]

[The rain beat down on my head as I think about my mother beside my home with father chopping wood.]

Island Girl: Mom ... Dad ... ? Timmy? There's ... remains everywhere.

[Island Girl was right. Skulls of those lost at sea lay at our feet. This wasn't Niinamigota.]

Island Guy: We came back together Island Girl. To imagination island.... THE STEPS! UP AHEAD! There's MOM!

Rivers: Come back Island Guy! She's not real!

[I didn't really care what Rivers had to say. I love my mother. No matter what.] <---- Sad music cue

[My mother. Father. Sister. Right there in front of me.]

Island Guy: I have wanted to see you for a long time. I ... I never want to leave Alfar again.

May: Sometimes we have to go places we don't want to.

Island Guy: I need help. We are looking for a way home.

May: And I'll always be there for you no matter what. Your father doesn't understand that you can't live alone.

Island Guy: What does that mean?

May: It means that you'll be trapped forever as a child. Even when you grow into a fine young man I know you will become. It means you'll never be able to move on in life alone. You'll need someone to be there for you when you die.

Island Guy: I don't understand ... won't you be there for me?

May: [Crying] No. But my soul will always be your fuel back to me ...

Island Guy: [Crying] C-c-c-can. Can I have it?

May: Of course you can Island Guy. You can have all our love in the world. And the atoms ... will let you see me ... one. last. time. [Clay Souls Added.]

[A gust of wind came from the sky.] [And then I could hear my parents voices once again. Talking about why I couldn't live alone. But I am alone.]

--- We then have a flashback of mother + father arguing about helping Island guy that has disability. Tori + Island Guy hide behind bookshelf ---

Dave: [Yelling] I CAN'T CONTROL MY SON. HE WON'T LISTEN!

May: HE DOESN'T NEED CONTROLLING!

Dave: MAYBE THAT'S WHAT YOUR DOCTORS TOLD YOU, BUT I WANT HIS OBEDIENCE!

May: WELL MAYBE YOU SHOULD GIVE HIM YOUR LOVE INSTEAD. DO YOU UNDERSTAND WHAT DISABILITY MEANS?! DO YOU!

Dave: [Slap] DON'T TALK BACK TO ME WOMAN!

May: I'M LEAVING WITH MY CHILDREN WITHOUT YOU! YOU SELFISH MONSTER! YOU DON'T CARE ABOUT HIM, YOU ALWAYS FAVOURED TORI. DON'T FOLLOW US EVER AGAIN.

Island Guy: [Whispering to Tori] What's disability?

Tori: I dunno. But you have it. We should leave them alone.

[It took almost a year for my family to reconcile. I helped my mother through the snow alone, when she realized she couldn't go any further. It took father almost one whole year to change himself alone. But I don't think he ever did.] [And that was the last nightmare I had of my families soul.] <-- end sad music

Island Guy: The souls for the rudder fit neatly in my pixie jar. But its turned to clay.

Island Girl: I think the clay is going to need to be mixed. Gorax mentioned something about fire ... and then the light sisters. I ---

Rivers: I what Island Girl?

Island Girl: I think the atoms have come now. On the island. Like you said. We three have been somewhere no other has been before. Did everything look see-throughy?

Rivers: It did. Let's ask Gorax about the carbonator generator. Sounds mystical. [The three fairy sisters appear over the family members ashes.]

Lilviple: Not so fast!

Island Guy: I KNEW IT! YOU ARE REAL!

Rivers: I don't believe it.

Enverlopa: You saved those miners Island Guy. You should be proud.

Island Guy: Thank you. So what do you know ---

Rindlepine: About the carbonator generator? It is an old gear source that steam powered vessels. Unfortunately, there were none in the wreckage.

Rivers: SO ITS NOT HERE?! WE ARE TRAPPED FOREVER?!

Lilviple: Not at all! The soul fuel will not work without the generator and the generator without the soul fuel. It is in spirit the Atoms light that will bring you Home. Do you believe in the impossible Island Guy?

Island Guy: No. Just my lucky coin.

Lilviple: That's because there's no impossible. It's only beyond your understanding once something that shouldn't work is achieved. But you have achieved the impossible here, haven't you?

Rivers: I guess you could say we've had some close calls. An avalanche.

Island Girl: An earthquake and abyss!

Island Guy: An endless nightmare.

Enverlopa: Then you continue on with your journey as you know it. Fade to black.

[Continue ... continue ... Gorax will tell you.]

--- We head back to Gorax and Inquire about the Fuel we found. Remind him about the Sisters ... Tomb. He talks about the Generator and where it is ---

Island Guy: Hello again Gorax. We found the fuel. So you want us to mix it in the fire?

Gorax: THATTTSSSS ITTTT!!!! SOULLLSSSS I CANNN SEEEEEEE! FFFFIRRRREEE YESSSSS!!! NNORRRTHH!

Island Girl: What do you know of the atoms? Lilviple? Rindlepine? Enverlopa? They said to mix the souls, we'd need to get the carbonator generator first.

Rivers: They spoke to us. ... You mentioned before Light? Sisters? Are those statues about the island have to do with the sisters?!

----- The sister of Joy and Flashback -----

Rivers: Hey guys, the light of the atom is glowing in my pocket.

Island Girl: Just like the gargoyle statue. Its flashing white this time!

Island Guy: Rivers ... touch the statue with it.

Lady Statue Severin: And the hero has arrived! Are you ready to leave Island Guy?

Island Guy: Yes. Yes I am ready! Severin, these statues: we they here before us?

Lady Statue Severin: Yes we have been here.

Island Girl: Sheesh! Could'a sworn there was nuthin here along the way to the island shop! Just a tree and ol Vines...

Lady Statue Severin: Only those with the light can see us. The others do not have it but you do.

Island Guy: It says here on the statue that you are Lady Severin.

Lady Statue Severin: My old name. But you have seen what I have turned into. When we ... pass on.

[We go to a flashback of Rindlepine and her story. We 'sort of' find out that the fairies are Island Guy's Parents.]

Rindlepine: What! WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO ME!

Wally: Hello Severin.

Rindlepine: Why do I look like this?

Wally: You have passed through many lifetimes and your final one has expired. You loved your brother didn't you?!

Rindlepine: With all my heart.

Wally: And that's what I'm here for ... your heart. To save your brother!!

[Flashback Ends.] [Rindlepine's Heart Added.]

Island Girl: So Rindlepine was Severin? Did you see Wally too? Why did he want her heart?

Island Guy: Her brothers heart. ... It felt like my heart.

Island Girl: If you say so Island Guy. Let's find the other two sisters.

--- The sister of Love and Flashback ---

Lady Statue Skyra: I flash red with love. The atoms light beckons. It's the love I wish I could find. With My Family.

Island Girl: What's your name?

Rivers: The stone says Skyra. And did Wally find you?

Lady Statue Skyra: No. I --- I lost my heart. I lost love. I'm hurt.

Island Guy: I feel your pain. I'm hurt too. I don't ever want to be hurt again.

Lady Statue Skyra: Then let me show you where love died...

[We go to a flashback of Lilviple and her story. We "sort of" find out that the fairies are Island Guy's Parents.]

Lady Statue Skyra: My child! Remember don't swim too far from the shore ...

Child: I can swim mommy! Look! [GRBBBBLEE]

[A Large wave comes back and sweeps the child away ...]

Lady Statue Skyra: MY SON! NO! NO! NO! COME BACK! I LOVE YOU!

Wally: I'm so sorry my child.

[Flashback Ends.] [Lilviple's Heart Added.]

Rivers: That ... that's very upsetting. He didn't deserve to die. I want to be his friend. [Crying]

Island Girl: You've really changed haven't you Rivers? In school you would have found that funny.

Rivers: That's not funny. Not at all.

Island Girl: Well then ... looky at us! All grown up!

Island Guy: All grown ---- no.

Island Girl: We're almost there. Let's fill the atoms light with the final sister ...

--- The sister of Peace and Flashback ---

Lady Statue Pika: I was a little girl just like you Island Girl ... then I grew into a young woman and warrior!

Island Girl: I like that!

Lady Statue Pika: But It was for nothing. Alone. Solo. I forgot to bring the boy with me. I forgot to bring my best friend.

I forgot to bring who I was most happy with.

Island Girl: Island Guy.

Lady Statue Pika: Your brother. Your best friend. Who you love.

[We go to a flashback of Enverlopa and her story. We "sort of" find out that the fairies are Island Guy's Parents.]

Enverlopa: HYA! HYA! HYA! I am strong! I am Powerful! I am a goddess!

Wally: That pride comes before the fall ... [A FIRE Storm strikes Enverlopa.]

Enverlopa: AAGGGHGHGHHH!!!!!!

[Flashback Ends.] [Enverlopa's Heart Added.]

Island Girl: The light. It flashes Red, Yellow and Green. One for Lilviple. One for Enverlopa. And One for Rindlepine. It won't stop glowing!

Rivers: Let's take it back to Gorax. It has to be ready. The three sisters are here in the light. I can feel it.

Island Guy: The last tomb. Gorax has the ATOM GIRL. She'll guide us.

Island Girl: How d'you know Island Guy?

Island Guy: Because I can feel it too.

----- We head to the Lights Tomb: Speak to Atoms and deliver hearts. Gorax is Inside with a Lever ----- Gorax: Commmeeee! Commmeeee insssiddeeee!

Island Girl: We have the hearts! See!

[I take out the fairies hearts and place them on the front of the statues. A statue of good. A statue of Evil.]

Gorax: Whennn yourree readdy! You willl needddsss tooo gooo intooo theee liiggghhtsss.

Island Guy: And then?

Gorax: The ATOM GIRL willl gguidddeee youuu ... readdy too speeaakkkzzz to heerrr?! Thennnzzzz pullllsss the levrerrzzz ...

[I pull the lever.]

[Rindlepine's Icy Heart.] [Lilviple's Icy Heart.] [Enverlopa's Icy Heart.]

Atom Girl: [Giggle Giggle] Hello again Island Guy. You figured your way out of that cave after bumping your head. Are you feeling better?

Island Guy: I realized I don't want to give up. That's why I am here on Niinamigota. With Island Girl. With Rivers. I want to give whatever it takes to return home.

I want to see my family.

Atom Girl: And the boy has become the adult. The pathway back is what you remember. Every detail you see. Every item you touch. Is a part of you. And trial after every trial, you uncover more about yourself as time moves on. You Island Guy, and you alone solved your own mysteries. We work together quite well you and I.

Island Guy: Wait! You and Wally ... Now ... you and the ATOM Girl. Who Are you?

Atom Girl: We keep telling you Island Guy... We are you. We are your brain. We are the way you think.

Island Guy: Have I ... just been talking to myself this whole time?

Atom Girl: It's so much to take in. So let me take you to where we are from, where everything is so simple. And that you can climb your way back up home ... Take my heart. Take our hearts.

[The hearts combine as one.] [ATOM'S HEART], + 1 [ATOMS HEART added.] Never give up Island Guy. Never give up.

---- We then get transferred into the Atom's Light [Carbonator Tomb] ----

This must be the Atom's Light. The Carbonator Generator's Tomb ... Lightstone Mountains ... The walls of eternity ... Friends that I meet. Families that I never knew ... I'm overcome with emotion. A new feeling. I have finally found myself ... On Niinamigota. My lucky coin ... Has found its way into my heart. Time to go ... Kid.

Island Guy: Wai - wait. How did we get here?

Island Girl: You dizzy?! C'mon! Wally's Castle is north of here ... Gorax left the Tomb and we have the hearts to unlock the statue gates.

Rivers: Do you not remember running here with us?! The adventure isn't over! Remember?! Don't forget now!

Island Guy: Umm ... I saw ... Light ... I was alone.

Island Girl: We are so close!

[I could see the excitement in Island Girl and Rivers eyes. This was the end. We could finally get some answers from Wally. We could finally leave ship.]

Island Girl: Go! Go! Go!

---- The Light Ends and I have the key to open the Statues of Mary and attend Wally's Castle North of the Tomb ----

[An echo in the wind.] [As I trip down the hall, I'm the last to leave the ship.] [My dad and mom are gone with the ticket lady. I feel both solstice and loneliness.]

[And I'm Lost.] [Lost amidst the cold waters that bind my heart.] [My throat.] [My Soul.]

Island Guy: The Carbonator Generator is there...

Rivers: In that Castle! A Royal Castle!

Island Girl: Exactly my dudes! It's just like the graveyard ... and just like the light stone mountains. Are you ready Island Guy?

Island Guy: I'm ready.

---- [Floor 1] We Enter Wally's Castle. It is dark and grim : like a castle for a vampire ----

Island Girl: [Shriek!] This is like a place for a vampire! Spooky!

Island Guy: YOU HEAR US WALLY! WE'RE COMING FOR YOU! NO MORE SNOWMEN! NO MORE NIGHTMARES! I'M READY TO FACE YOU!

[A Sigh echoes throughout the castle. It was Wally for sure.]

Wally: Child. I AM your friend. I will prepare you to overcome your nightmares. Your final trials. For I am not a vampire Island Girl, but an idea.

And you are my subjects. You three are still very scared indeed.

Island Girl: Nuh - Uh!

Rivers: GIVE US THE GENERATOR! I'LL ... I'LL FIGHT YOU FOR IT!

Wally: No, no, no Rivers. I won't let you become a bully again. You are good in your heart now. Remember? You have to be brave. Not sad. Not angry. Brave.

Rivers: [Muttering to self.] Be brave ... Be brave ... OKAY! READY OR NOT HERE WE COME!

Island Guy: Good job Rivers. This is the end for us. Let's go out strong ... TO THE GENERATOR AT THE TOP OF THE TOWER!

[I knew it was there. My time on this island was about getting out of a pit. Niinamigota was a climb.]

---- [Floor 2] Second Floor of Wally's Castle ----

Wally: A Place for you atop my castle! To take my throne. It's always been yours Island Guy.

Island Guy: I am not anybody's! Stop taunting me!

Wally: Your heart is mine! Just like the Atom's!

Island Guy: I'm coming for you! GRAHHHH!!!!

---- [Floor 3] We reach the Top of the Castle: [Wally Boss Part I] ----

Wally: And the Hero arrives! Tell me, how was your journey?!

Island Guy: YOU SENT ME INTO THAT NIGHTMARE! WITH MY PARENTS! AND QUALLECK AND PELLECK BEING MY BULLIES!

Wally: No no child, I was hoping you would understand my point of view.

Island Guy: I DON'T WANT TO HEAR IT!

Wally: But you will see it. A memory you three have forgotten. But after you get the generator, Conquer fear! Go to the graveyard and find it one last time in my depths ... Quallack and Pelleck are waiting.

Island Guy: Will I see you ---

Wally: No more questions! Defeat me now! You can do it! Don't give up on me! I won't lose you!

[We Grab the Map on the Throne]

Island Girl: That's it! Run Island Guy! Run! It set off a trap! This castle be crumblin'!!!

Rivers: HOLD ON!!!

---- We flashback to Island Girl + Island Guy + Rivers Getting along after school : They are down by the Beach---- [Just after the Final day of school ...]

Rivers: We did it guys! We completed school!

Island Girl: And what did we learn most importantly?

Rivers: To be friends. Dad taught me good!

Island Girl: Jasper is so kind! Haha! What fun we are having! Right Island Guy! You going to help us catch some more fish or are you day dreaming?!

Island Guy: I see ... I see dragons!

Island Girl: Oh don't be silly Island Guy! We just learned so much! You can't help yourself!

[I turn to Island Girl.]

Island Guy: You're right! I'm having so much fun! [Smiles] I can't contain it! WAHOO!

Island Girl: Hey Rivers, you know what we should call this beach? We should call it imagination island? OH! How about a fun word!

Rivers: Niinamigota! [Laughing]

Island Guy: Niinamigota! [Laughing]

Island Girl: Hahaha! That's so funny! I like it! Then ... next school year we can come back here, and then the next! Forever and ever!

Rivers: Forever and ever!

[Fade to Black]

Island Guy: We ... we three had a nice day on that beach. And I forgot. We all forgot ... We ... we are friends! [Crying.] It's been so long. I want to play and do school again. We called that beach Imagination Island! Niinamigota. That's where I remember it. An ATOM girl reminded me. I'm sorry Rivers
WHOAH!

---- We cut to an explosion of the Wally's Castle Outside [Scroll top to Bottom], Fade to White and end up Outside on West Beach ----

Island Girl: That's it! The directions home. Our own courage! The Carbonator Generator is ours!

We got to go back to the graveyard. This is the end. It's over. We can go home!

Rivers: Onward and upward buddy?!

Island Guy: Yes! You too Rivers! Quallack and Pelleck ... It's Over! I'M NOT SCARED OF YOU ANYMORE!!

---- We Talk to My Family at the End of the Graves ----

Island Guy: Mom? Dad? Tori? Were you? I ...

May: We're with you to the very end Island Guy. Right there in your little heart.

Island Guy: So you're like Samuel then? You are touching my heart, but are In my Brain?

May: Yes sweetie! You're such a fast learner! Look at you, just learning and understanding things that you didn't know only a year ago. But you know were all back at home right? Safe by the piano, reading a fine book by the fireplace ...

Island Guy: I know! I have a marshmallow hunger right now!

Tori: YUM! YUMS!

Dave: My boy, I ... I almost didn't recognize you. Been fed well on this island! You're about an inch taller.

Island Guy: Yeah ... we ... all grew up. And I have managed my stutter w-well. I have Island Girl with me and talking has gotten so much easier. It was so hard to speak with the other classmates in school and well ... They all wanted me to be the leader! I was class president!

Dave: I know you were. And pops here is so proud. Sometimes he doesn't show it. Because my little boy can be difficult. But extraordinary!

May: Now son, you go in there ... and you cross through the impossible. Cross through the hardest part of your life To feel. And Accept. That one day, we'll be gone without you.

Island Guy: I know. I remember. You would always tell me that. [I stand confidently, and look to my friends.]

[I look to the sky.] [They know I'll be just fine on my own.] I'm ready.

---- We have a pre monologue with Quallack and Pelleck [Final Pre Battle] ----

Quallack: AT LAST! THE HERO OF THE ISLAND RETURNS FOR ONE LAST FINAL BATTLE! THE FUEL IS OURS AND WE ADD ONE MORE TO THE FRESH ISLAND MEAT!!

Pelleck: BAHABA!! REMEMBER US CHILD?! THERE IS NO ESCAPE FROM HERE! WE KNOW OUR LAIR BETTER THAN YOU!

Island Guy: I'M NOT YOUR CHILD! I AM WITH MY FAMILY WHEREVER I GO! AND YOUR NOT GOING TO HURT ANYONE ANYMORE!

Quallack: Ahhh well ... A young boy is still lost in his own mind. But where are your parents then? Gone. But we are here. All the hope your father prayed for. In each of our poetries. No less from our savior Wally himself.

Island Guy: No! I don't believe you. They are the words of the Atom's! My friends. And not your nightmares.

Pelleck: Pointless to argue with this one. He Looks Juicy!

Quallack: Shut up Pelleck! You are quite a stupid side kick you know that? And after all this time on the island, we still have not eaten our prize.

Pelleck: Sorry Quallack.

Quallack: But that ends now! Prepare yourself if you wish to leave this island, for you are no match for us! DIE NOW!

Island Guy: BRING IT ON!

---- An Epic Battle Ensues, Quallack and Pelleck are Defeated ----

Pelleck: GWAH! [Cough Cough] I DIE! I DIE!

Quallack: YOU WIN Kid. [Cough Cough] Time to leave your nightmares forever. [Cough]

Island Guy: They're gone ... my nightmares... forever.... WAIT! The Fuel, and fire! Let's mix it! ... SAMUEL! YOU CAME!

Samuel: See you on the other side kid!

Island Girl: Island Guy! There you are! The exit is here! This place is going to explode! Hurry!

Island Guy: There! All done! Help me with it! Samuel and I got it!

Island Girl: You did it for all of us. Island Guy ... you are my hero.

Island Guy: Thanks Island Girl. Let's take one last journey home. I don't ever want to see this island again ...

[KABOOM!]

Island Girl: UGH! I Tripped. HELP ME!

Island Guy: I GOT THE FUEL! HOLD ON!!!!

Island Girl: I LOVE YOU ISLAND GUY!

Island Guy: I L-l-lo-love y-y-you t-t-t

[Fade to Black]

---- We end up back at the graveyard ----

Rivers: SO! WHAT HAPPENED?!

Island Guy: I ... I found the souls. And mixed them into the fire. Samuel and Island Girl helped me.

Rivers: YOU DID IT ISLAND GUY! YOU WENT THROUGH IT! YOU BEAT THOSE TWO BACK!

Island Girl: Quallack and Pelleck won't haunt us anymore. ... Good idea finding that escape route Rivers! So ... you two ready?!

Rivers: To go home?!

Island Guy: Absolutely! Rivers? What's wrong?

[Rivers looked east to the Orion Sea and smiled.]

Rivers: It's nothing. Time for us all to say goodbye.

---- After Battle and we deliver the Goods to the Captain ----

Captain Narbule: HOORAY!!! Well that appears to be the last of them then The Islander Can add em' together!

Island Girl: One Rudder Fuel and one Carbonator Generator to take us home ya Cap'N!

Captain Narbule: My my! [Tears in eyes.] You really did it! That's them! That's the ones that I remember! The fuel is warm and been mixed like a treat!

I'll help Zhogol and my wife Vietta mix more of it, since we got the sample here... ON THREE!!! ONE!!! TWO!!! THREE!!!

[Carbonator Generator Removed. Rudder Souls Removed.]

Island Guy: Does that mean we can go home?

Captain Narbule: Yessir! Ask around and let the others know we depart later today! Baha! To hear ye breathe once mar, the Stockhausen goes a wantin'!

I'll be at the wheel fer now. When yer ready kid. The ships all ready and set for sail now I suggest doing one last check of the island to let all the passengers know we're ready to board!!! Good Luck!

Island Guy: I'll let yar know! [I was smiling. Captain Narbule was funny. I was happy again.]

[Rivers turns to Island Girl and Island Guy.]

Rivers: I meant what I said Island Guy. Back in the mines ... Island Girl. I --- I need to live here with my father.

Island Guy: But ---

Rivers: But nuthin' friend! You can say goodbye to both of us one last time up at my father's hut.

Island Guy: You. You are my friend. Now and always!

Rivers: Always dude! Say hi to Alfar for me. You and Island Girl will be happier with your family.

[Rivers Leaves to Return with Jasper]

Island Girl: Brave? Like you are not alone anymore?

Island Guy: I have you. Want to stay up and see the moon and stars upon the nights sky?

Island Girl: I remember how beautiful the stars were after coming home from the food markets ... Before a long sleep.

Island Guy: Then let's stay up the whole night.

Island Girl: You're right Island Guy. The stars and cosmos are beautiful.

Island Guy: You remember? From planets class?

[One day later at sea]

---- Island Girl and Island Guy reach home after defeating Wally Outside of Port [Brief] ----

Island Girl: [Cough Cough] We made it. ... all the others have gone home. You slept okay Island Guy?

Island Guy: Home. [I remember this place.] [This was where my mother walked me to the boat with all the other islanders.] [Tori hated the snow.]

[Father wanted to buy a home with all his winnings from the crops.] [Home was just a few miles away.]

Island Guy: I know the way back ... Alfar.

Island Girl: I remember too ... The school and my home just north of yours and then we'd go to this ... This beach.

Tori: Island Guy! [Hugs]

Dave: Son! [Crying]

Island Guy: Mom!

May: My boy! [Crying] I thought I'd lost you.

Island Guy: Never ever-ever mom. The storm scared me. On the S.S. Stockhausen. Helping that girl was the only thing I cared about ... Her name is Minnie.

May: You became a strong and responsible boy on that island didn't you? And you always do the right thing, no matter what happens. I'm so proud of you. Is this ...

Island Guy: This was the girl from school. The one I always talked about at home. Her name is Island Girl. Island Girl?

[Island Girl stared blankly at my mother ...] [And then turned into a ghost.]

Island Guy: What ... What is happening? Island Girl say something. [I go to touch my best friend.] [But my hand goes right through her heart.]

[I hadn't felt so empty in my life.] [My sister's hug floats right through me.] [I look at the remains of my family home.]

May: It's time for us to say goodbye. You're safe now.

Dave: That's all we care about son. You're alive. And you're happy.

ATOM GIRL: We love you Island Guy.

Rivers: We love you dude.

Tori: We love you biggy!

Dave: Your father is a tough man. But there is one thing I didn't say enough. I love you son...

May: We love you sweetie. Now and always ...

Island Guy: [Crying] Don't go mom. Please. Don't go. [Crying] I don't want to be alone here. [Crying] I don't want to be alone.

Island Girl: You won't be alone. I'll be in your heart. Always. You conquered your fears. You didn't let your obstacles triumph. I love you Island Guy.

Spartress: We love you Island Guy.

Narbule: We love you Island Guy.

Jasper: We love you Island Guy.

CP Mission V1: Taya's Letters

Find after Chapter 4

EXTRA MISSION 1 - Before Ice / Rosto / Gold Rud

Taya: Island Guy? Could you do me a favor?!

Island Guy: What's that?

Taya: Well ... I know you helped out old Nigel and Nally with clearing the Eastern weeds and finding the sails mast so I'd like help finding some pages from my diary.

Island Guy: Oh! o-o-o-okay ... well ... where do you think you lost them?

Taya: Some are by the Orion sea. Some are hidden in the southern forest. Some are East of here. There should be a total of six notes.
When you're done, please put them in the mailbox to the south.

Island Girl: We'll have em' picked up!

Settler Void Mission 1 Begin

----- We go out to pick up all the Letters -----

Island Girl: I see a letter right there on the ground! Pick it up Island Guy!

Letter 1: [I read the Letter]

Dear Troy, Although I don't have a family, I consider you to be more than a step brother. I miss Oros very much. We could stand at the edge of the Toorish sea together and I'm going to send these messages by bottle into the sea. My hopes is they travel to you and step pa soon. Your sis. Taya.

Island Guy: I see another letter from Taya's diary. Lets follow the letter trail. It may lead to her diary.

Letter 2: [I read the letter.]

Dear Troy. Just yesterday Ol Nan went to Dolphins library to pick up a few books on the history of this place. Dolphin is quite a writer and Ol Nan is a hoot!
Being alone with people I've grown to know has truly changed me. All alone without you has ... changed my perspective. On life. Your sis. Taya.

Letter 3: [I read the letter.]

Dear Troy. It's sunny here so I can only assume the Yusti circus has come to town. Did you know that there are two islanders here that used to perform with the circus? The moustache brothers they call themselves. Kogo and Muglark. I recognize them too! Remember when we played that game with the hammer and bell? Oh! And pin the tail on the tiger?! I miss you Troy. Your sis. Taya.

Letter 4: [I read the letter.]

Dear Troy. Did we have knights in Oros? There is a king and queen here that have travelled with knights across Gzhapel. Some of the knights are very mean while the other knights are very kind. They are both at each other's throats. The king is rude while the queen is polite. The children are well behaved. They live on their own docks created by the knights themselves. I'm not a fan because they think they are better than others. But not your nor I big brother! Your sis. Taya.

Letter 5: [I read the letter.]

Dear Troy. Let me tell you about a dream I had the other day. There were three fairies, and then a much larger fairy. They were telling me that I would see you Troy and soon. The fairies could cast dust into the sky and paint rainbows. I know it's just a dream but the colors were so vivid. It was like I was there right with you. It for me was as real as ever. I asked the fairies to take me back home. I hope my wish will come true! Your sis. Taya.

Letter 6: [I read the letter.]

Dear Troy. I think this will be my last letter until you write back ... Hopefully, If the sea bottles can make it to you, surely I will get your letters too. There is a key under my bed. Take it and then look in the bottom drawer of my treasure chest. There is a small keyhole to the right of the wooden base. It's a secret lock that mom taught me about. In it is extra money for both you and the family. I don't want you all to go without food and the thought of you all starving worries me.
I love you lots. Your sis. Taya.

Island Guy: I ... I can now see just how Taya feels. These letters ... They remind me of people. Just like me.

Island Girl: See that mailbox up there? Let's check it. Maybe Taya left her diary there for safekeeping.

Flashback of Taya

Island Girl: Uh huh! You were right Island Guy! Her diary was in here. Look!

Island Guy: No, I think we read enough. I --- [Island Girl ignores me and begins to read anyways. And I am brought to a different part of Gzhapel.]

Taya: Are we done fishing here, I'm tired.

Troy: Just one more --- WHOAH! BIG CATCH!

Taya: Ha! You did it! FINALLY BRO!

Troy: Agh ... nope. I lost it. Hey you know what the lesson here is.

Taya: Guh! You always seem to have a lesson involved.

Troy: The lesson is. All things escape. And there's nothing we can do about it...

Taya: That's not much of a lesson.

Troy: Well you'll see soon. Life moves on. There's nothing you can do about it. The good things. The bad things. You have no control over.

Taya: I guess. I guess that makes sense.

Troy: And don't forget your family. Ever.

Island Guy: Let's get this diary back to Taya. She really misses Troy.

----- We head back and deliver the Letters to Taya -----

Island Guy: Here is your letter's Taya. Your diary was in the mailbox.

Taya: My Letters! My Letters! Thank you! You didn't read them did you?!

Island Girl: Yeah we did. Sorry. I know they were private.

Taya: Oh that's okay! Thank you for your honesty!

Island Girl: And thanks for letting us stay here while Island Guy and I got some time to think.

Taya: It's okay. You're one of the peppier ones Island Girl.

Island Girl:]Blushes] Aww!!! Shucks!!! We may come here to rest time to time. Also come by our houses. Oh! We could team up!

Taya: Your sweet Island Girl. But I have to take care of some of the older islanders that need my help!

Island Girl: Responsibility! Check-O! I hear ya! Well I hope you get to see Troy soon. Hey! I wanna go to the circus too!

Taya: Well! When we all go home, how bout' we go together?!

Island Girl: I'd Love that! Don't you agree Island Guy?!

[I nod and stare at the sand and stones on the floor. I don't know if that's going to happen. But a circus event would be a good change of pace.]

Island Guy: I want that too. We have to go Taya.

Taya: Okay! Toodles!

Island Guy: Hi Zhogol. Are you feeling better?

Zhogol: Oh SO SO MUCH! Thank you for asking Island Guy! I want to go back to that cabin, I think I forgot my sword.

Island Girl: Hey buddy, don't worry about it. Sometimes, we have to move on. That wasn't the place for you to be.

[If no Sword.]

[Island Girl: We have the sword!]

[If sword.]

[Island Girl: We gave it to Moustache Kogo.]

[If sword CP.]

Zhogol: Oh! Anyways, the Captain says I got both deck cleaning and cabin cleaning duties. Can you help me find a mop, broom and deck cleaner?

Island Guy: Of course Zhogol. We'll ask around the island homes.

Witcherina: A Mop for Zhogol! I'm a witcherina! Here's a mop for you!

Island Guy: Thanks Emily! You know where we could find a broom or pot?

Witcherina: Goods Store? Northern Island? I'm not entirely sure. Sorry ...

----- We Go to the Clock Kings House -----

Clock King: Tick Tock?! Do I hear a broom and a pot?! Here you go!

----- We go to Dojo Rabuls House -----

Dojo Rahul: Deck Cleaner? Yes indeed! A piece of wood is dear art to me!

Island Girl: That's all of them Island Guy. Zhogol should be able to clean the deck in no time.

Island Guy: Let's head back.

----- We head back to the S.S. Stockhausen -----

Zhogol: Is that it? Yeah! That's the stuff!

Island Guy: We hope this ship is ready to run.

Zhogol: Well, I'll give it my best for sure!

Wife! She is South by the Captains boat ...

Settler Void Mission 3 Begin

----- We Find Plitra in the mid shore island -----

Plitra: If this is about Scutt, Leave me be in peace. I can't stand him. He has problems.

Island Guy: It is. You should be with him.

Plitra: We need to get back on the ship, but he isn't listening.

Island Guy: He wanted us to get you some rare gifts. I think that If we get them for you, and you show him, he'd return to the ship!

Plitra: ...!! Good idea! I tell you what: I'm looking for salts and herbs about the main island. Find the items and the herbs. I'll help him out.

Island Guy: Right indeed ... this is the minstrel flower. Its feels so good.

Island Girl: Zat's called an Aroma sirs!

Rivers: My body's tingling with sensation. I feel so calm and floaty.

Island Guy: I like when things speak for them self.

Island Girl: Maybe this flower is for the wifey, so Scutt can make her feel good ... GAWWWHHH!!! That's soo sweet!

Island Guy: Let's pick the flower... [Minstrel Flower Picked!]

---- Gathering the Safra Jewel ----

[The Chest Reads: Vietta's Jewel of Safra] Island Guy: Best I don't touch it ...

Vietta: Yes Islanders?

Island Guy: There's an islander that wants your jewel ... says on the box. D-d' you know a Scutt?

Vietta: UGH! That creep! No way I am giving my stone to him!

Island Girl: Actually I have an idea missy Vietta.. Plitra doesn't really want Scutt's gifts, but it's the thought that counts.

I'll get it from Plitra once it's all done. She just wants him away from his junk and back on the boat.

Vietta: Oh I see! Well: thank Plitra for getting her husband back to a better state.

Island Guy: BUT HE'S HAPPY!

Island Girl: HE'S CRAZY!

Island Guy: HE'S NORMAL!

Island Girl: AIN'T MY NORMAL \n[1]! ... He needs help.

Rivers: I can see both your sides. Some of the farmers would act up about their crops too ... Anyways, let's get this to Plitra.

That way, she can get him away from the shack.

Spartrina: Yess Kiddies!

Island Girl: OI Mikey! So the snowmen are gone.

Gambler Mike: That's some good stuff kids. Actually I was hoping for some help me'self. Do you have a minute?

Rivers: What's that?

Gambler Mike: Go next door and speak to witch Bob. We are having a show and tell with all the lost luggage collected. That way people can claim back their own... cool huh!

Island Girl: WOO HOO!! THAT'S EXCITING! MAYBE MY TEDDY BEAR IS IN THERE!

Rivers: Ha! Loser!

Island Girl: SHUT IT RIVERS!

Gambler Mike: We worked out together a spot just outside the lighthouse east of here... Queen Froomar and some of her knight friends worked this all out behind the Island Kings back ... We don't want to invite them.

Island Guy: Alright. I'll see you there when we've got everything.

Witch Bob: Brother Mike is Ready?! Joyous and Fabulous! We can hold nightly returns until everyone's things are claimed by their rightful owners ...

In good fortunes, the islanders might even build a pixie dust pot luck! I'll gather the west and east items. Tell Froomar its time for her to bring the items from north and south. Narbule should be able to provide!

Island Girl: Hey Froomar.

Queen Froomar: Hey Island Girl.

Island Girl: So we spoke to Mike and Bobrat. The shopkeepers and islanders are ready for the show and tell on the Eastern end of the lighthouse.

Queen Froomar: Oh that's wonderful! With all the charity by my own knights and the islanders help, we can start building homes here until that boat gets fixed. Let's just keep this a secret between us so my husband king doesnt find out.

Island Girl: We heard from Mike. We understand.

Queen Froomar: I'll be there every night until we've got all this stuff sorted out. Plitra has been kind enough to pry most of it away from Scutt.

Speak to Spartrisa on your way out. She'll let you know when its ready.

Spartrisa: The Pot luck is complete! Are you ready?! [YES Triggers Cutscene]

---- We go to Lighthouse Bunker where Auction begins Cutscene before Completion----

Queen Froomar: Thank you for all coming. Please do not tell my husband about this, it will be our little secret! Any islander that has lost luggage was kindly sponsored by collaborations with Plitra and Scutt, whom are now resting on the Stockhausen. Please give them our thanks! We hope that any of you with extra pixie dust can donate for a good cause of food for the hungry. If you cannot, that is okay. Best of health to you all. All: [Cheers!]

Island Girl: FATHER?!

Island Guy: ??? Who are you talking to?

Island Girl: Terry? Terry! It's you!

Terry: Hey! My girl! How's the island?

Island Girl: Mother isn't with you?

Terry: Actually she is. In the graveyard. And with Timmy!

Island Girl: No ... What are you saying?

[Island Girl Looked quite hurt. She was talking to herself just like I do sometimes.]

Terry: I'm sorry Island Girl. I'm a ghost. I died. And Martha. And your brother.

Island Guy: I'm sorry Island Girl. Our families aren't here.

Island Girl: [Sobs] I know. I just. I saw the bench and it felt good. Like Samuel.

Island Guy: Yes, there are a few others here. I see you wrote something on the gravestone.

Island Girl: Yeah. Dear mom: I hope you are well. I can feel your presence on the island of Niiianmigota with Terry and Timmy.

I always look to you for advice. You are my hero. You don't give up on me. I --- .

Island Guy: I what?

Island Girl: I miss Island Guy. I wish he was here. Signed: Island Girl.

Island Guy: [I turn to Island Girl] All this time, you didn't recognize me. And I didn't recognize you. Time makes us forget.

Island Girl: I won't forget you ever again. Let's find Timmy.

----- We Find Timmy's Gravestone -----

Island Girl: This is Timmy's Jar. I painted it purple because that's his favorite colour.

Island Guy: My favorite colour is purple too! It's such a strange colour.

Island Girl: Timmy would suck his thumbs before going to bed. I can hear him now.

Island Guy: Just like my sister. I have enough room in the pack for your fathers jar.

Island Girl: Thank you Island Guy.

----- We Find Terry's Gravestone -----

Terry: I see our family in that pack of yours. Ready to take us fishing by the sea.

Island Girl: [Sobs]

Terry: Oh I'm sorry Island Girl. I know Alfie meant a lot to you.

Island Guy: Who is Alfie?

Island Girl: My dog. He died.

Island Guy: I'm sorry. [I felt a heap of sadness I couldn't quite understand. It hurt to see my friend in tears.] Let's get to the northern beaches.

----- We go to the Northern Beaches -----

Island Girl: There. All buried by the Sea. Right in my favorite spot.

[If NOT done Endless Seashell Quest]

Island Guy: They'll be okay. This part of the island feels much warmer. It's like ... being closer to home.

Island Girl: We say that, but I don't know what home is anymore. I'm lost. I'm lost circling this island and I'm tired.

Island Guy: Lets never come back here. If it's too painful.

Island Girl: Okay Island Guy. Promise.

[If done Endless Seashell Quest]

[I see a vision morph from the Pots. The Endless seashell must be calling to it.]

Island Guy: Hello? Are you Island Girl Parents?

Martha: Island Girl is our daughter! You must be the handsome young boy she was talking about.

Island Guy: I think I look a bit scruffy. [I was embarrassing myself and didn't know how to talk to adults.]

Martha: Oh I think you look just fine. Can you take care of her while we are away?

Island Guy: I --- think I can do that. My dad says I am not responsible. What does that mean?

Martha: Someday soon you and Island Girl will grow up together and begin a life in love. Then your dad will pass the responsible to you.

Island Guy: Ohh ... I still don't understand.

Martha: [Giggles.] You two are peaches! We will wait here on the island. See you soon little children! [Giggles.]

[Monologue]

[I glimpse at this hungry boar of a tiny princess as she devours the food on her plate like a lion. Her evil stare of destruction lingers as each pile of potato fries and engorged by the plateful. Her brother winces at each bite. The game is on. The knights have placed bets she can't finish the meal. But she can. She is determined. She is unstoppable. She is Svemstri!]

Knights: CHUG! CHUG! CHUG! CHUG!

Jasper: You must be able to read my mind. I taught you well in school my boy!

Island Girl: I know Gloria, a bit of a crazy one though?

Anastasia: Hey don't say that! She's my good friend. She may be a bit strange because she is overly fascinated with plants. But she isn't crazy.

Island Guy: Well, this Lighthouse does look a bit boring. We can make it pretty!

----- We go to Gloria's Garden -----

Island Girl: [Nervously] Hi ... umm ... Gloria ... How are your plants?

Rosto: Whoah! Was that a voice from the Sky?! Absolutely rad!

Island Girl: I think it's time everyone. We are off to fix the ship.

Dojo Rahul: Wait! You have to at least finish the story Jasper.

Jasper: Oh yes. So Vesterpok continues to approach the dragon with his mirror shield, trying to trick the dragon. But the dragon was not confused.

Dragons are very smart indeed. The dragon knew what the saint was up to. So he crept forward thinking that the dragon could not see him ...

Spartrina: And then?! THEN WHAT HAPPENED?!

Jasper: AND THE DRAGON ROASTED HIM FROM SKIN TO BONE!

All: [WHOAHHHHH!!!!]

Spartress: That was such a fun story Jasper. If only my sister could keep her trap shut.

Like walking on a cloud. I feel sorry for Wally because people think he looks scary. But I don't think he's scary. He carries a funny metal sword that he calls a scythe. It's for him to balance the souls that are my friends he tells me. And then Island Girl joins us. We are playing on a beach with a ball made of rubber. It's catch time. Catch time. [Yawn ...] The Note and Map fade in memory. Transfer to Outside of Taya's House.

[IN THE ATOMLAND]

Mystery Man: Ask the Mystery Man anything! Who Are you?, Are you the Programmer? Well, I am you.

Yes. I am Niinamigota, the island itself. I am the mind that creates feelings and thoughts.

Atom Girl: Questions about the Future?! More Games?, What do you plan to Do? The Developer is pretty Tired, and making Niinamigota and Exvelten was enough For now. This is likely the last game of two. I hope to write music or learn something in academics. There is so much to learn, but so many distractions that remaining focused costs a lot of energy. Only time will tell.

Enverlopa: This is the programmers Corner! Enverlopa has your answers! How did you write the Story?, Is story based on Real Events?, Is this game Religious? Believe it or not, the script was written both directly into the game and on a document. The plot was written first, with a beginning middle and end. As Niinamigota developed, many edits were made directly into the Story. 95% No. 5% Yes. But some Characters are very real. It is a collection of those, the developer has met through his life. Is the Developer Island guy? No ... And Yes! Island Guy is those friends, family, and those that have shared their struggle. Island Guy is a life's experience. Actually, the religious sounding text is about poetry! It's Island Guy's attempt to express his own feelings in wrapped up ways that don't make a whole lot of sense. So No, it's not religious, but if you want to interpret the game as religious, be my guest!

Rindlepine: This is the programmers Corner! Rindle Pine has your answers! How long did Game Take to Make?, Who worked on this Game?, Why did you write this Game? The Project Niinamigota Began in the Middle of the Summer of 2019. The story actually came first before the programming and lasted two years! It began in the summer and ended in the summer! How Island Poetic! [Who worked on this Game?] Colin Sandquist. Literally just that Guy. The Kadowkawa Art Team created the Pixel Art Graphics. That's it. But there's more to it too! Trailers Promotion Social Media Its never just the game! Its the universe realm of it all! [Why did you write this Game?] I wrote it after the music actually! Ask my sister lilviple about it! I wrote it for my friends, family, and those I care about. "I love you."

Lilviple: This is the programmers Corner! Enverlopa has your answers! Strange Story. Deeper Meaning?, Tell me About the Music., What was Music inspired by? [Strange Story. Deeper Meaning?] The Music actually came LONG before the game in 2018. It was also one of the reasons I created the game Niinamigota in the first place! I had no programming or software knowledge beforehand, and this seemed like a great place to start! Half the music was already written, but it was out of shape and not very well mixed, so I had to edit it a few times to get the theme just right! [What was Music inspired by?] The Music was inspired by my struggles in school I think. I needed the concept of good and evil and to experience both and let it speak.

Darkstone King: I'm here to take you back to Niinamigota when you are ready ... Take Me Back, I have more Questions ...

Congratulations! #1 Fun Fact: Exvelten and Island Uphold were made simulataneously back to back. Exvelten was supposed to be a small project that shows the mechanics of a video game. It took 4 months and 100 - 150 hours to complete!! Niinamigota was written before Exvelten and put on pause ... as it was the much larger project. Niinamigota started immediately after Exvelten and took 9 months and 1000+ hours to complete! FUN!

Congratulations! #2 Fun Fact: Colin Sandquist was a musician LONG before he was a music composer and LONG before he was a video game developer! He originally wanted to be a clarinet player for a symphony but then realized his creative potential partially through school after endless boring music history classes. Sorry U of T! It was there he thought to himself ... "listening to history is stupid, why not just create history?!" And Thus his quest to stand up against "the man" and write out his own story had just begun!

Congratulations! #3 Fun Fact: Colin Sandquist had failed every entrance test to 4 universities and only landed his studies at 1 university because of a good friends reference... Had I not made it, I could have been pushing around a grocery cart. But then again, maybe not! Destiny is quite scary if you think about it! PLEASE BELIEVE IN EDUCATION!!! Oh and before I go, please don't interpret this as myself taking a stab at those in the working industry. They are very hard workers and nice people! But I'm sure there are parts in everyone's life that are TRULY life changing decisions! I know leaving home and where will be one of them.

Congratulations! #4 Fun Fact: Characters in the game are based off my close friends and others I've met in my life ... !! In Part ... Some of it is hocus pocus too.

Congratulations! #5 Fun Fact: This is my fifth video game and first full feature game! My entire video game collection can be found on my webpage: www.colinsandquist.com Such Shameful self promotion! laugh out loud! Congratulations! #6 Fun Fact: Previous to my music, Colin used to work in a bike store to fix bicycles! He also sold and found rare books!!

Congratulations! #7 Fun Fact: Speaking of that bike store and Rare books ... some of them have been featured in big movies!! Those books are super famous! LOL! Congratulations! #8 Fun Fact: Both Twin Games Exvelten and Niinamigota were once named Woodland Camper and Island Uphold Respectively ... In the beginning of Niinamigota, an original joke remained, where captain Narbule says that the S.S. Stockhausen needed "Upholding" Now it needs "Niinamigotaing!" I kept that joke in, even though it makes no sense. Its just for sentimental purposes !! Congratulations! #9 Fun Fact: I also decided to change the names because they were too vague ... Speaking of which, yes, niinamigota is a respelling of imagination or, imagination island. [Just incase you didn't get the references.] If you look carefully; the letters B R A I N are scattered about the island. As this takes place inside island guy's mind? Or does it? I hope you all feel optimistic and heartfelt about the ending! I believe both island guy and island girl made it back to their families!!

Hanna: Big Bro's in a better mood no?!

Island Guy: I think he'll be okay. I haven't asked him.

Hanna: Good! Can you take this to Prince Lashmir? It's a mango plant, he's wanted one to grow on the northern island. [Secret Mission 4: Whirlpool Island]

Island Guy: Hanna has a mango plant for you!

Lashmir: Ahh Perfect! It was a fair trade with her. Tell the knight my extra thanks! Speaking of Trades: Rumor has it there are 'Draggy's' about the island.

Tyler needs his magic wand back, but he's been studying these creatures through magic. It's all Hocus-Pocus!

Island Girl: Don't say that Lashmir! Give the magician a shot - He's done some pretty cool tricks! I like him!

Island Guy: He can make the bathtub icy.

Lashmir: Pfft! It's all mirages and visions I tell you! Nothing more!

Island Guy: I'll give him back the wand. He will do amazing things, I know it!

Lashmir: Alrighty! Au - Revoir then! UGH! I'm Starting to sound like my sister! Can't wait to get outta here.

Island Guy: Hello Mr. Tyler! Here is your wand for all your great shows!

Magician Tyler: It's Perfecto! C'est Flair Voyant! Ze swish and flicks are backzz!!

Island Guy: Will you use it against the green draggy's? Please don't. Their friends.

Magician Tyler: No worriez! Iz an animologist! Studiez ze creaturez! Take some Dragon Repellantz in ze treasure chests ... They are in my room.
